JOHN FITCH, son of John Fitch and Elizabeth Beers

Nathaniel Fitch born — about 1735
John Fitch born — about 1737
Elizabeth Fitch born
Susanna Fitch born

1748 The father John Fitch dies

1765 Elizabeth, to brother Nathaniel, 16 acres at Poplar Pla.

1766 Brother, Nathaniel dies, John Jr. named executor
1766 John Jr. gets Fitches Plain and Wolfe Swamp along with his sister, Elizabeth.
11-6- 1766 John Fitch marries Elizabeth Lockwood

1767 Elizabeth marries David King of Green Farms

1768 Elizabeth and David King to John, 23 acres
1768 1-21-68 land contract naming Elizabeth and David King of Fairfield, Green Farms
1768 1-21-68 land contract naming John Fitch of Norwalk
1768 Contract names Elizabeth Ellis as mother of John, Eliz., Nathaniel and Susanna. Nothing more is found about Susanna. Perhaps she is dead by this time as she has received no inheritance as the others have.
1768 John to David, 3 acres at Poplar Plains
1768 John to Elizabeth, 16 acres at Poplar Plains
1768 John to Elizabeth and David King, 1 acre Wolfe Swamp
1768 12 acres at Wolf Swamp, 1-21-1768

Son John Fitch is born

1771 Son, Gideon Fitch is born

Daughter, Susanna Fitch is born

1776 Poplar Plains was filled with troublemakers, page 128 Hall's History of Norwalk

1773 to
1783 Elizabeth Lockwood dies

1777 Elizabeth Ellis writes her will and names in it her son, John Fitch, and her grandchildren, John Fitch, Junr, Gideon Fitch, Susanna Fitch, children of John, and Nathaniel Fitch King, Elizabeth King, and Sarah King, children of her daughter, Elizabeth.

1782 Nathaniel, son of John Fitch, born
1782 Decree of Trenton giving this date as a time when the settlers were to be given their land if they had been there or their ancestors had been there before this date

1783 John Fitch has his name as a settler in Wyoming County, PA. Later on in land contracts in PA it would be said of him that he was a settler before the Decree of Trenton so he could claim the land he had settled on. In 1783 We find his name on the list of settlers in the Susquehanna Papers.

1784 Betsey Fitch born in Stamford in May. Said to be the daughter of John and Molly Fitch. Molly may be Mary. A Betsey Fitch marries Jeremiah Shaw in 1803 in PA.
MAY OR MAY not be the Betsey born 1784

1786 In CT John Fitch sells land to Ebenezer Guyer (Guire), Norfield, Hulls Long Lots, near to sister Elizabeth's heir's land and to the Widow Sarah Guyer's land and Fanton Beer's Land. Also land in his homestead.

1786 David King to Ebenezer Guyer, his son's land by Elizabeth Eales death. It was next to the land he bought from John Fitch.

1787 John Fitch to James Fillio, 19 acres at Poplar Plains

1788 Wyoming County, PA, history says that John Fitch and David Morehouse settled in this year.

1789 Matthew Sherwood brings his family to Wyoming Co., PA, and settles between the farms of John Fitch and David Morehouse, who settled a year before. Whether that means they both settled in 1788 we cannot be sure, but it sounds that way when you read it. Matthew Sherwood is from Danbury, CT. Interesting as his wife was Elizabeth Philo. Is that different from Fillio???? Don't think so.

POSSIBILITIES;

John and family were in PA in 1783 - but this is unlikely.
Elizabeth dies
John takes his family back to CT
John gets married again
Sold out all of his property
Last deed was in 1787

Or John went to PA to get his house built and things in order
Elizabeth dies back in CT
John returns to get his family
Doesn't want to take them back, or Can't with out a mother
So eventually he remarries and they go back in 1788.

Or John is a Tory and finds himself in prison in Norwich or Norwalk, along with some of Elizabeth Lockwood's brothers, and when released he makes his move to PA. I found where one of the Lockwood boys after a time did join the American Army and served. So perhaps John did that too. Would seem hard to be in a place like Wyoming County and still have Tory leanings after the massacre and burning of all their homes and so forth. Wouldn't think people would want them around.

After the massacre most people went back to CT for a time and returned after several years to occupy their land again. In fact the Jenkins family left in 1778 after the trouble and did not return until 1785.

Still have much to learn.

1790 Census of Wyoming Co., PA

It shows that John Fitch had 3 males over 16
That would be himself, Gideon, and perhaps John Junr.
1 male under 16 and that would be Nathaniel, born 1782
5 females, his wife for one, perhaps Susanna, Betsey, and maybe Sarah, and one other. Possibly they had a daughter, Lydia "Sally"

1792 Possibly John Fitch, Junr. dies back in Norwalk

1800 Census of Wyoming Co., PA

Shows 1 male between 16 and 26 which would be Nathaniel Himself, 45 and up
2 females up to 10 years, born between 1790 and 1800
1 female 10 to 16, born 1784 to 1790
2 females 16 to 26, born 1774 to 1784
His wife, 45 and up Gideon has his own house & family

Possible family set up:

John, eldest son	born 1767-1770
Gideon	born 1771
Susanna	born before 1777
female	born 1774-1784
female	born 1774-1784
Nathaniel	born 1782
female	born 1784-1790
female	born 1790-1800
female	born 1790-1800

1810 Census of Wyoming County, PA

Still has 2 females born 1784-1794 and may be the last two females in the previous census.
It could not be Betsey who was married in 1803
"Sally" Sarah who was married in 1806
Too old for Susanna

Possible Susanna didn't even come to PA with the family as she could be old enough to marry before they left depending on what her birthday really was. All we know was that she was born before 1777 and the date of Elizabeth Ellis's will.

UPDATE OF NOVEMBER 10, 1998

Poss. marriage was to Billy Finch abt 1785

THE MARRIAGE OF JOHN FITCH AND ELIZABETH LOCKWOOD, Nov. 6, 1766 at Weston, CT

Robert Lockwood, settler, to Massachusetts 1630 married possibly Susannah Norman of Salem

Joseph Lockwood, b. 1638, married _____ Beachum
John Lockwood , married an Elizabeth _____.
John Lockwood 2 married Abigail Morehouse, Daugher of Gideon Morehouse

John Lockwood, son of John, married Abigail Morehouse, daughter of Gideon Morehouse and Mary Grumman. Will 13 Feb., 1784, proved 17, Jan. 1785, wife Abigail, children of son Jabez of Fairfield dec'd, John, Jr., children of Ephriam dec'd, Michael, Gideon, Albert, Samuel, and daughters Anne, Abigail, Mary, children of Elizabeth dec'd, and Susannah.

Jabez, born 6 Feb, 1732
Anna, born 18 April, 1734. Married at Wilton, 26 Dec., 1757, Ebenezer Gray
John, born 12 Oct. 1736. Married Abigail Taylor, daughter of Reuben, married 2 at Weston, 4 Jan. 1776, Eunice Squire (Had children baptised at same church, same day as Betsey dau. of John & Molly Fitch)
Abigail, born 7, Nov. 1738
Ephriam, born 4 Jan. 1741. He joined the enemies of the U.S. May 1778, leaving a wife and 5 children in Fairfield, returned and died by 1783. Married at Weston, 19 March 1767, Anna Whitlock, prob. the daughter of Daniel, born 2 Dec. 1748. distribution of dower to widow, Anna, 12 June 1783.
Mary, born 20 Jan, 1743, bapt. at Westport, 27 March 1743. Married at Redding 27 March 1768, Peter Fairchild.
Michael, 2 Oct 1744, Ens. Norfield Co., 4th Regt., Oct. 1773. Married at Weston, 8 Nov. 1768, Abigail Adams, daughter of David Adams. Children bapt. Weston, Abigail 1769, Ebenezer 1773, Gershom 1775.
Elizabeth, born 13 March 1748. Married at Weston 6 Nov. 1766, John Fitch
Esther, born 9 Feb. 1749, died young.
Susannah, born 2 Jan. 1752. Married at Weston 5 March 1772, Joseph Dixon
Gideon, born 23, Oct. 1753. Married Lydia Morehouse Dec. 1775.
Eleazer, born 27 Aug. 1755, died young
Albert, born 10 July 1757. Accused May 1778 of being inimical to U.S. died at Weston 16 Feb. 1846. Married at Weston, 12 April 1781, Grace Godfrey
Samuel

It appears that several of her brothers were Tories and some of the friends of John Fitch were also the Tory list so he may have been on the wrong side. There was a John Fitch in prison at Norwich some time during the Revolution. Brother Jabez married Sarah Bennett and was dead by the time his father died. Brother Gideon was accused of being inimical to the U.S. in 1778, had 9 children with Lydia and died insolvent in 1804. So Elizabeth had at least 3 brothers that were Tories and might have married a Tory, John Fitch. Also interesting is the fact that our John Fitch named one of his children, Gideon, and he was born in 1771 so could have been named after his grandfather Gideon Morehouse. But our Nathaniel was not born until 1782, so he may not have been the son of John's first wife, if indeed, John did marry Elizabeth Lockwood.

THE FOLLOWING ARE THE DEEDS THAT JOHN FITCH, SENIOR, MADE OUT TO GIVE HIS POSSESSIONS TO HIS SONS, JOHN FITCH AND NATHANIEL FITCH.

THIS IS:

Thomas Fitch and Anne Stacie
John Fitch and Rebecca Lindall (who is the John Fitch, Sen.)
John Fitch who is John Fitch, Junr. who married Lydia Bushnell
and
Nathaniel Fitch who is the Nathaniel here and married an Elizabeth. first and then later Sarah Seeley Frost and Anna Mallory. Would appear our descendant was from his first wife Elizabeth, no surname found as yet.

Thomas Fitch, born 1612 and died in 1704. The Thomas Fitch mentioned here would no doubt be his grandson, Thomas, as this Thomas would be dead and his son, Thomas, was also dead before this agreement was made.

John Fitch who married Rebecca was born 1633 and do not have date of his death at this time, but this would indicate that he was still living in 1713/14.

John Fitch, Jr. who married Lydia Bushnell was probably dead in 1748 or 1760 at the latest when his will was proved.

Nathaniel Fitch was born in 1682 and died in 1743.

The Distribution of the real and personal Estate of Nathaniel Fitch, late of Norwalk, Dec'd, made by us the Subscribers, according to order of the Court of Probate of the District of Fairfield, this 21st Day of March, 1786, appointed and sworn as the Law directs.

Set off to John Fitch one piece of land, lying in Fitch's Plain, 10 acres, 106 rods of land appraised at 4 pounds per acre.

Also a piece of swamp land adjoining at the South end of said Plains containing 2 acres appraised at 3 pounds per acre.

Also one piece of woodland lying on the North end of said Plain containing 2 acres appraised at 2.7 pounds per acre.

Also another piece of swamp land adjoining called Woolf Swamp containing 4 acres and 3 rods appraised at 30 / per acre. Not sure if this is shillings.

Set off in moveable estate as follows:

Wheat on the ground	5 pounds
Hay on the ground	3 pounds
One yoak of Oxen	14 pounds	10 /
One pair of ??	9 pounds	4 /
One cow	3 pounds	7 /
One bull		24 /
One heiffer		40 /

some items of leather, not sure what they are

1 bag, 1 bottel, 1 great coat, 1 fan, 1/2 pitch fork

1/2 part of the widow's thirds in the homestead that he had in her son, Nathaniel's Estate during the term of her natural life, to wit, one third part of the house and barn and also acre and 6 rods of land Northerly and adjoining said house and to extend 13 rods Easterly from the Highway and to extend 13 rods in width from said house assessed at 9 pounds 17 / and 6 pence??? The above is his part in his mother's thirds in said Homestead.

The "unknown" researcher who did research in the 1940s had it listed like this in his report:

Vol. 23, page 103 .. Diatribution of estate of Nathaniel Fitch, of Norwalk, made persuant to Court Order of March 21, 1786, to John Fitch, 10 acres, 106 rods on Fitch's Plain. 2 Acres of swamp at south end of Plain. 2 acres of woodland at North end of Plain, and 4 acres and 3 rods of swamp called Woolf Swamp. Elizabeth, wife of David King 2/3 of Homestead, house and barn. Each heir got 1/2 of the widow's thirds in the Homestead that she held in her son Nathaniel's estate for life. (This proves that the distribution was of the estate of Nathaniel, son of John and Elizabeth.) The distribution

Shows this was Nathaniel son of John Fitch + Elix. Beers
Bro. John Fitch made Exector may have been delayed until after the death of his mother, Elizabeth, for Nathaniel seems to have died in 1766. His brother, John, administrator in 1766, must have then been of age, so born before 1745 and since he was called Junior to distinquish him from John, son, of Theophilus, who was born in 1740, he must have been born between 1740 and 1745 or at a guess 1742/3.

The "unknown" researcher makes some good points which we can understand better now that we have the will of Elizabeth Beers Fitch Ellis that was written in 1777. Also we have the other land transactions between John and his sister, Elizabeth, who married David King. It would appear by this time that both Nathaniel and his sister, Susanna, were dead as the rest of the estate is divided in halves. I do not find in this transaction any mention of the sister Elizabeth and what she got but the "unknown" researcher must have found it. Perhaps in the next page of the contracts.

So the Nathaniel Fitch we are dealing with here is as follows:

Thomas Fitch and Ann Stacie
John Fitch and Rebecca Lindall
Nathaniel Fitch and Elizabeth
John Fitch, Jr., and Elizabeth Beers
Nathaniel Fitch who died in 1766.

Nathaniel's siblings would be John Fitch, Elizabeth Fitch who m. David King and Susanna who must have died or moved away as she was not included in any of this. Since the distribution was not made until 1786 it apparently waited until Elizabeth Beers Fitch Ellis died. It would seem though that since we find John Fitch selling or giving some of this same land away to his sister in 1768 that perhaps they had it earlier, or they had land their along with Nathaniel at that same place and that is what was changing hands at that time. John has his last deed listed in 1787 as though he were selling out and drops from sight. We hope we have found him in Pennsylvania!!

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF THOMAS FITCH I OF NORWALK, CT.

The word "Count" may not be correct
But "Court" does not sound correct and it looks like "Count"

THE SWORD AND GUN BOLT OF THOMAS FITCH

From the will of Thomas Fitch (1612-1704) we find that he gives his sword and his gun bolt to his grandson, John Fitch. At that time John would have been about 27 and Nathaniel would have been about 22 years of age.

Then by checking the inventory of that John Fitch (1677-1760?) we find that there is listed 1 sword. I do not find the gun bolt but it is a hard list to read and decipher.

Since John's oldest son was Matthew I checked the inventory of Matthew to find that also listed is 1 sword and 1 gun bolt when Matthew died in 1779.

I was trying to follow the trail of the sword to see if the sword that was in the inventory of John Fitch (1710-1748) might have possibly been Thomas's sword. From the above, I would say "no". It looks like after it was given to grandson, John, it must then have gone on to Matthew who was his eldest son. This would be what you would expect.

So then the sword that John Fitch who died in 1748 had must be one that he purchased from someone else or was given to him by someone else.

That is good news as we are trying to disprove if possible that John (1677-1760) had a son by the name of John. Since the records so far in Norwalk seem to show that the only John Fitchs at the time we can find seem to all point to John, son of Nathaniel Fitch. No other stray John Fitch seems to be in that generation except for those of Rev. James Fitch's family.

Since he had a sword.....Needed to prove that he did not have Thomas's original sword. Of course, this is not proof, but it would appear that Matthew had it in 1779 in his inventory which makes sense. So the one that John, son of Nathaniel had, must be a different sword and leaves him off the hook for being a son of John (1677-1760)

Since we have no death date for John Fitch, husband of Rebecca, and son of Thomas, we do not know for sure when he died. But from the land records of Norwalk the last we have going to John Fitch, Sr. is in 1710 and the last I see so far going from him is one in 1713/14 which goes from John Fitch Sr. to John Fitch, Jr. I need to look further at the records of all that went from John Fitch, Sr.

Also noted that in the will of Thomas Fitch, in 1704, that his son, John Fitch (1633- ??) received the rest of the property that was given away at his death.....other than the bequeaths given to individuals.....including his muskit, sword, bandolear, and scabbards. So perhaps he had 2 different swords and perhaps that particular one given might have been given then to Nathaniel as brother, John, already had his sword from his grandfather. Might still be a sword of Thomas. Since we do not have probate papers for John I (John and Rebecca) 1633-????, we have not record of what he had or what he gave away. The wills seem to jump from Thomas to John II and that is all that Roscoe Conkling Fitch could find apparently too as those are the only 2 that are found.....except of course, now we have the one for John who did died in 1748 leaving OUR JOHN. That is almost positively traced back to Nathaniel and we find a sword in that inventory.

I believe probably the two contracts he made giving and dividing up his remaining properties was done in 1713/14 and that is probably the last we have of John Fitch, Sr. He gave to Nathaniel his new dwelling house which appears to have been on the Thomas Fitch property right in downtown Norwalk. I think by this time, son John, had moved to New Canaan. Need to check on that. But the last dates we have are 1713/14 for John Fitch Sr., with the exception of two in 1737 which probably belong to John and Lydia as he would be John, Sr. if his father had passed away. Just too many years between the two. So my assumption is that John I died around 1714 though can find no record to prove it. He also gave to both boys half of his undivided land in the outskirts of Norwalk.

Even though he left a will, an agreement among his heirs was drawn up 14 March 1681/82. The heirs includes Rozimond, her four sons-in-law (married women were not allowed to own real estate), and Nathaniel's sons from his previous marriage. Nathaniel left his home and homestead to Joseph Ketchum, husband of his daughter, Mercy, which suggests that Joseph and Mercy cared for Rozimond in her declining years. Also, it appears that Mercy thought of this childless man as her real father, as she named her first born son after him.

PLACES IN THE FITCH FAMILY

JOHN FITCH AND LYDIA BUSHNELL

New Canaan Church, members in 1733
Canoe Hill
Huckleberry Hill
Long Ridge
Upper Clapboard Hill

NATHANIEL FITCH

Given lands in New Canaan by the will of their Grandfather, Thomas Fitch as follows:

"I will and bequeath unto my two grandchildren, namely JOHN and NATHANIEL FITCH, parcells of land lying Eastward towards Sacotuck Riveer, consisting of the following lands, bogg, meadow and swamp, the quantity consisting of about 50 acres. The quantity and bounds expressed in the Towne Record, and said land to be divided equally between them in common. Some time after my decease, I do bequeath unto my said Grandchildren, John, my fowling small gunn bolt and sword." Thomas Fitch died in 1704 so John would be about 27 years old and Nathaniel would be about 22 years old.

JOHN FITCH, I, AND Rebecca Lindall, received most of the rest of the estate as there was no other son at that time. Thomas had died before his father but his son Thomas received land in the "Neck" and the "Cow Division". Grandfather to Grandson.

JOHN FITCH, and Rebecca received his dwelling house, barn, home lot as expressed in the towne record. Also all my lands both upland and meadow lying in the planting field on ye other side of ye River, also my lands without fence, laid out or to be divided. Also my commonage. This may have all been in the town proper, and the outlying lands went to JOHN AND NATHANIEL, sons of John and Rebecca.

The will of JOHN FITCH and Lydia Bushnell gave land to 3 sons, MATTHEW, THEOPHILUS, AND BUSHNELL. No mention of a son John in the will.

The boys received divisions of the same parcels of land as follows:

Lands lying beside the Homestead land in New Canaan runs along Capt. Carter's lands land on CANOE HILL near to Deacon John Bennedicts land
Huckleberry Hills

THEOPHILUS received 7 acres on the East side of CLAPBOARD HILL, in what was commonly called Long Ridge, plus the above.

BUSHNELL also received some of CLAPBOARD HILL and also some land called Salt Meadow, Canfield's Pond, plus the above.

NEW CANAAN is North and West of Norwalk proper. LONG RIDGE is above Stamford.

JOHN FITCH, son of THEOPHILUS FITCH (his oldest son) was given UPPER CLAPBOARD HILL property in Canaan Parish on Feb. 1767

He bought 20 acres of SILVERMINE from Jacob St. John in 1770
He and brother JOSEPH sold BARREN MARSH CREEK to Isaac Richards in 1789
Sold HOMESTEAD LAND, UPPER CLAPBOARD HILLS, and SILVERMINE to Boutons in 1794
Mother, Lydia quitclaims her part in HOMESTEAD to Boutons in 1794.

THEOPHILUS died in 1783.

LANDS MENTIONED IN CONNECTION WITH JOHN FITCH, who was the son of JOHN AND ELIZABETH

GREEN FARMS, home of David King
WESTPORT
FAIRFIELD
FANTON LAND
WOOLF SWAMP
NORFIELD, OR NORTHFIELD
HULLS LONG LOTS
ASPERTICK RIVER
SECOND CROSS HIGHWAY

These places are mostly north and east of Norwalk. Green Farms is along the sound and East. Fairfield is considered a town East of Norwalk, and also a county including the whole area clear up to Danbury and all of the above. Hopefully the maps will show the other places.

The LOCKWOODS lived in this area, John and Elizabeth Lockwood were married in a Weston Church.

So one of our John Fitch's lived in this area, or at least held property there. We don't know at this time if NATHANIEL moved away from the NEW CANAAN area or if he lived his life there. It would appear that JOHN, SON OF THEOPHILUS, did not move away during his early life as he sold out in 1794. The JOHN FITCH of the East properties was there in the 1760s.

THE MARRIAGE OF JOHN FITCH AND ELIZABETH LOCKWOOD, Nov. 6, 1766 at Weston, CT

Susannah, born 2 Jan. 1752. Married at Weston 5 March 1772, Joseph Dixon
Gideon, born 23, Oct. 1753. Married Lydia Morehouse Dec. 1775.
Eleazer, born 27 Aug. 1755, died young
Albert, born 10 July 1757. Accused May 1778 of being inimical to U.S. died at Weston 16 Feb. 1846. Married at Weston, 12 April 1781, Grace Godfrey
Samuel

It appears that several of her brothers were Tories and some of the friends of John Fitch were also the Tory list so he may have been on the wrong side. There was a John Fitch in prison at Norwich some time during the Revolution. Brother Jabez married Sarah Bennett and was dead by the time his father died. Brother Gideon was accused of being inimical to the U.S. in 1778, had 9 children with Lydia and died insolvent in 1804. So Elizabeth had at least 3 brothers that were Tories and might have married a Tory, John Fitch. Also interesting is the fact that our John Fitch named one of his children, Gideon, and he was born in 1771 so could have been named after his grandfather Gideon Morehouse. But our Nathaniel was not born until 1782, so he may not have been the son of John's first wife, if indeed, John did marry Elizabeth Lockwood.

LOCKWOOD information:

Vol. 21, page 58: JOHN LOCKWOOD, of Fairfield, will dated Feb. 13, 1784, probated Jan. 17, 1785. Mentions wife, Abigail, remainder to my children living and grandchildren of the deceased, viz., to children of my son, JABEZ of Fairfield, deceased, and to JOHN LOCKWOOD, JR., and the children of EPHRIAM, deceased, and MICHAEL, GIDEON, AND ALBERT AND SAMUEL, and the daughters ANNE, ABIGAIL, MARY, and the children of ELIZABETH, deceased, and SUSANNA.

Vol. 24, page 356: Distribution June 12, 1783 of dower in estate of EPHRIAM LOCKWOOD, of Fairfield, to his widow ANN LOCKWOOD (Ann Whitlock), one-third of house and lands.

Ephriam Lockwood left his wife and 5 children in Fairfield and went off to join the British. He did return apparently later, but was dead by 1784 when his father died.

Vol. 19, page 114: Jan. 27, 1774, deed of Ephriam Lockwood of Fairfield, to John Lockwood of Fairfield, my father, land in Fairfield in Norfield Parish in Beachums and Lockwoods Long Lots between Saugatuck River and the Third Cross Highway. (This land was in Northfield, the present Weston which is north of old Fairfield and Norwalk.)

This EPHRIAM LOCKWOOD is a brother of the ELIZABETH LOCKWOOD who married JOHN FITCH.

History and Genealogy of Families of Old Fairfield, CT., Vol. 2, Part 3, page 344 (DL Jacobus) gives the following: JOHN FITCH married Nov. 6, 1766, ELIZABETH LOCKWOOD (Weston Church Records) but the lineage of this John is not given. A study of the ancestry of ELIZABETH LOCKWOOD (JOHN, JOHN, JOSEPH, ROBERT) shows that she was the daughter of JOHN LOCKWOOD AND ABIGAIL MOREHOUSE and ABIGAIL MOREHOUSE was the daughter of GIDEON MOREHOUSE and MARY GRUMMAN.

THEOPHILUS FITCH DEEDS, WILLS, ETC.

VOL. 13, PAGE 78, FEB. 24, 1767: THEOPHILUS FITCH of Norwalk, for love to son, JOHN FITCH, land in the parish of Canaan at the UPPER CLAPBOARD HILL, with a dwelling house, by estimation 6 acres, he to have 1 acre on which the house stands in consideration of his being my OLDEST SON.

Vol. 16, page 441, Feb. 25, 1789: JOHN FITCH and JOSEPH FITCH of Norwalk, for 36 s New York money, to ISSAC RICHARDS of Norwalk, sedge flats at Barren Marsh Creek in Norwalk West fields, half of an undivided piece, the other half belonging to said Richards. Probably the sons of Theophilus as there was a John and a Joseph.

Vol. 17, page 378, March 24, 1794: JOHN FITCH of Norwalk for L 675, to ELIAS BOUTON and STEPHEN BOUTON of Norwalk and NATHAN BOUTON of Stamford, four pieces in Norwalk at UPPER CLAPBOARD HILLS, vist., my homestead land and all buildings standing thereon, 82 acres. Another piece 2 acres, another 8 acres, another in SILVERMINE road 21 acres. Witnesses: Abijah Taylor, Eliphalet LOCKWOOD. (ELIPHALET LOCKWOOD SR. died 1814. He married Susannah St. John in 1766 so was probably about John's age.)

Vol. 17, page 345, Oct. 20, 1794: LYDIA FITCH quitclaims all right I have in lands of my son JOHN FITCH, and resigns all my right in land which he lately sold to ELIAS, NATHAN AND STEPHEN BOUTON, which I hold as my thirds in my late husband's estate. Signed by a mark. Witnesses: ESECK FITCH, THADDEUS BETTS, J. P.

Vol. 9, page 4 of index lists:

RUTH, daughter of JOHN FITCH, born March 29, 1768
ESECK, son of JOHN FITCH, born November 26, 1769

This would make ESECK FITCH about 25 at the time, in 1794 and living in the Norwalk area. He moved to New York state

THOMAS FITCH AND ANNE STACIE
JOHN FITCH AND REBECCA LINDALL
JOHN FITCH AND LYDIA BUSHNELL
THEOPHILUS FITCH AND RUTH, LYDIA
JOHN FITCH AND _____
ESECK FITCH born 1769

One old genealogy states that this JOHN FITCH, son of THEOPHILUS FITCH, was the one who married LYDIA WHEATON and that his father, THEOPHILUS, married LYDIA KELLOGG. I have found no proof of this, except we can read that

ESECK FITCH had son
CHAUNCEY WHEATON FITCH

who could have been named after his great-grandmother or grandmother LYDIA WHEATON. Other genealogies put LYDIA WHEATON with THEOPHILUS FITCH.

We find Enoch, son of John, in Albany, New York where they raised their family. So this John we think went to N.Y. prob 1794

Finding proof of who Married LYDIA WHEATON and if it was JOHN, son of THEOPHILUS, it would simplify things for us as it would eliminate the possibility that he was the one who married ELIZABETH LOCKWOOD.

It would appear that JOHN, SON OF THEOPHILUS FITCH, sold out his lands in 1794 and drops from the scene. Our John was already in Pennsylvania as shown by the census in 1790 and was there with considerable family. In Norwalk area, CT the 1790 census shows that there was only one JOHN FITCH listed and he also had a large family living in his house. By 1800 we find no JOHN FITCH'S in that census in Connecticut, only the household under the John Fitch name with 2 females and no males. (in Norwalk area)

Did JOHN FITCH, son of THEOPHILUS FITCH, die in 1792 and this 1794 contract when he sold his homestead was done after his death, but still in his name?? Just as the census was done in his name, but with him not in residence??? His mother gave up her rights to the homestead in 1794 also, a little later in the year to the BOUTONS.

We have this third death of a JOHN FITCH in the Norwalk area:

Vol. 19, page 460: JOHN FITCH, JR., of Norwalk. Bond appointing DAN FINCH administrator. Inventory. List of debts. (See abstract files at Connecticut State Library, Hartford)

Many believe this was John Jr. son of John Fitch & Elizabeth Lockwood

Another notation of the same listing: JOHN FITCH, JR. Year 1792, File #2225, Town of Norwalk, District of Fairfield, 3 documents, bond dated April 16, 1792, appointing DAN FINCH, administrator with JOSEPH LOCKWOOD, surety. Inventory dated Sept. 7, 1792, appraisers STEPHEN KEELER.

Which JOHN FITCH is this?? Bob Wallace genealogy has this as the son of our JOHN FITCH saying he was born in 1775 and so died in Norwalk in 1792. Need some proof of the birth of this John and who is the John who died in 1792. Need to look at #2225.

Do not mistake the name FINCH for FITCH as there were both families living in the Norwalk and Stamford areas.

Also the names of LOCKWOOD AND KEELER are prominate families in the whole Norwalk area so doesn't always mean that person is a relative. But since the "surety" indicates that the person is responsible for another's debts, or assets JOSEPH LOCKWOOD could be more than just a casual acquaintance.

The only two JOSEPH LOCKWOODS found in the Fairfield area around the date of 1792 would be:

JOSEPH LOCKWOOD, uncle of ELIZABETH, born about 1710-18
JOSEPH LOCKWOOD, son of the above, and cousin to ELIZABETH

We find now that Eliz. also had a brother, Joseph
He had child bapt. in May 20, 1784 the same day as John & "Molly" had Betsy baptized.
(Not positive this was her brother)

TRACING OF FITCH NAMES ....

GILES:

Ebenezer Fitch, son of Governor Fitch, had a brother names Giles who was born 1745 amd died 1747 at two years of age. Then Ebenezer married Lydia Mills and they named one of their son's Giles. Giles, son of Ebenezer and Lydia, was born perhaps around 1762. The other children were born 1751 and up and appears that Ebenezer died in 1762 so Giles would probably be their last child.

Thomas I, Thomas II, Thomas III, Gov. Thomas, Ebenezer, Giles

Lydia Mills was from Wilton, and apparently Ebenezer and Lydia lived at Chestnut Hills, which is in the Wilton area.

Giles Fitch was on the pension list in 1832 and listed as 70 years old. That would make his birth date about 1762. It was stated that he was from Wilton, in Fairfield County, CT. Later on he moved to New York.

If our John was descended from John or Nathaniel, he would be 2nd or 3rd cousin to this Giles. Since there were not that many Fitches left in Norwalk at that time they would no doubt know each other.

It was John's son, Nathaniel I, who named one of his boys Giles. Possibly from this connection.

The War Pension File on Giles Fitch is on page 1203 under FITCH

Reads: CT Line, soldier lived at Norwalk in Wilton Parish in Fairfield County CT at enlistment, Applied 11 Sept. 1832, Chenango County, New York, aged 70, a resident of Greenfield in Saratoga County, New York. After the Rev. War the soldier moved to North Castle in Westchester County, New York for 2 years then moved to Greenfield in Albany County, now Saratoga County, New York.

Giles brother, Ebenezer II married Sarah Hobby from North Castle, Westchester County, New York. So far have not found out anything about a wife for Giles.

In "Norwalk" by Selleck it says that Lydia Mills was the daughter of Samuel Mills, Jr. and he was of Greenwich.

Dear Betty-
I did go to Salt Lake for a week toward the end of March and one of the projects was to see if I could figure out who John Fitch's second wife, Molly, was. In preparing for the trip I went over in great detail everything I had previously done with my research, plus everything you had sent me. Then I made a time-line for John beginning with his date of birth and listing everything we had found connected to him until his date of death. In doing this it was clear to me that there was at least a FIVE YEAR break between the three children mentioned in Elizabeth Beers Fitch Elis' will made in 1777 and Nathaniel's birth in 1782. Then I began to speculate if I had copied the year for Betsy Fitch's baptism correctly- that being the occasion when Molly's name is first mentioned. I looked at the church records again, and I had indeed copied the year wrong. Betsy was baptized in May of ~~1873~~, not ~~1874~~. 1783-84
This means that she and Nathaniel are just a year apart- and makes it even more unlikely that he was a child of the first marriage.
You asked in a prior e-mail if the Connecticut records filmed by the LDS church are a valuable and reliable source to use. They have been filmed at the State Library in Hartford and are as reliable as if you were at the library itself.
What the researcher found for you was essemtially what is at that library. Taking advantage of the filming is certainly alot less expensive than hiring a researcher. Plus, you know what you are looking for better than someone you hire.
Now to the next phase of what I did. I started looking at Connecticut families known to have gone to the Wyoming area of PA at the time John Fitch went and to check if any of them had a daughter fitiing the criteria for Molly. One name appeared which I have pursued. Molly Morehouse, b. 25 Nov. 1760. She is to be found in "The Families of Old FAirfield: by Jacobus, p. 682. Her father, Joseph, is listed as son of David with a question mark, but I found a deed from David's father, Nathan Morehouse(Jacobus p.425) naming Joseph as his "well-beloved grandson." I did not find any evidence of Molly having married anyone else. I read deeds, wills and early Connecticut church records in this process. You will see from Jacobus that she and David Morehouse, who settled next to John in PA. were related.
That she is much younger than John doesn't bother me- we know she had several children with him, perhaps two more girls after Betsy and Sally, per census records.
In researching church records, I found the records for the Congregational church at Weston had the marriage of Elizabeth Fitch and DAvid King, plus the births of all their children, the youngest Elizabeth, having been baptized in 1774. Elizabeth is named as deceased in 1777 by her mother, and may have died at the time of the birth. John Fitch and Elizabeth Lockwood's marriage is recorded at the Norfield Congregational Church, Weston. Their were no Fitch baptisms in either of these church records, or any other marriages.
The records of St. John Episcopal Church in Stamford, where Betsy's baptism is found, are typewritten, so there may be errors. The original records are no longer available for research according to the introduction, so we will never know for sure. The only thing to help substantiate the year is that it is one of the middle years copied and is in sequence with the other years. That is the only Fitch baptism in any year.
I realize this is still a work in progress and that I have not absolutely proven who Molly is, but so far no negatives have appeared. I would appreciate your thoughts, as always.
Hope you had a nice Easter. Our youngest granddaughter has her first birthday next Sunday- hard to believe!
Ann

Hi Ann,

So good to hear from you. And to know you are still out there searching for answers. I haven't had a lot of time to do much searching with trying to learn "Front Page" so I can do a decent job of our Huntertown Historical Society website, and the fact that our 19 year old grandson found out a few months ago that he has bone cancer, and is under vigorous treatment now. It means he and his mother go to Indianapolis for the treatments and my son stays here and tries to keep the home together and I go to stay with my granddaughter over night as Larry works third trick. I only go when her mother is in Indy with Tim, but seems that is quite often. He has gotten very sick with the chemo and has several more treatments before they will do the surgery; then it will be back to several more treatments before they stop the chemo. The outlook is very good, except that it seems that chemo does a good job of trying to wreck all the rest of the body parts. But there seems to be no other choice at this time. So we do the best we can.

You may well have hit upon the answer to John's second wife. I had not thought to look at the Morehouse family. I had tried just to research the names of some of Nathaniel's sons for a possible clue to their grandmother.

Have a couple questions that struck me while studying this.

My "unknown researcher" who had done his work between the 1940's and 1970 found and recorded the date of Betsey Fitch, dau. of John and Molly as May 20, 1784 also. I went back over my sheets and his date was definitely 1784. And you had sent me an e-mail with the information about Samuel Fitch and Olive Stewart having a child baptized on the same day. Actually Samuel and Olive were married in March of 1783 so I thought their son, Daniel, was probably born somewhere between those dates, more likely not before May of 1783. Today, wouldn't bet on that, but in those days, it didn't happen quite so often. So then I began to wonder which date was it?? I guess if they are typed we never can be sure. But my opinion too, was that Nathaniel was probably the son of Mary, and not of Elizabeth Lockwood. Wish we could find a burial place or record for Elizabeth Lockwood Fitch's death.

I did a study recently on John Fitch and his Tory leanings. By taking Edwin Hall's "Ancient Records of Norwalk", I took each of the men who had been put in the Tory list along with John Fitch and Nathan Fitch and tried to dig into their backgrounds. Very interesting that almost all of those were living in the area where we have pinpointed John.....around Poplar Plains and Norfield, and Chestnut Hill where Samuel Fitch II settled. And a lot of them were members of the St. Paul's Episcopal Church whose pastor, Rev. Leaming was a known Tory and taught strongly to his congregation that they were to follow the authorities and not be rebellious. Many of them were in the list "to collect Rev. Leaming's rate". He left with the British when they invaded Norwalk and never returned. I don't find John Fitch in Rev. Leaming's list, but several others were, like Garner Olmstead and Nathan Burwell, Jr. (signers of the Ellis will)

Hall has removed John Fitch from his list of Tories, but I have seen him listed in other books that carry the same list. I have also seen several places where the marriage of John Fitch and Elizabeth Lockwood was recorded. In various churches and places, one being in the church at Goshen, I believe. So wonder if they were married elsewhere, if the home church would then record the marriage also though it might have happened in another place. Though I know I have seen it recorded in at least 3 different places, I was not smart enough in the beginning to keep all my sources! Two places were the Goshen Church at Lebanon or Norwich, and the Trinity Episcopal Church at Fairfield. But just in what book I found them, I do not know.

No it doesn't bother me either that Mary might have been considerably younger than John. I would suppose that the St. Paul's Episcopal and the St. John's Episcopal in Stamford were sister churches of a sort. And I felt that since Betsey had been baptized on the same day as Daniel Fitch, son of Samuel and Olive, and John Lockwood, Jr.'s child, and they were all from the same area, that our John Fitch was indeed the one who was there that day.

It would be fun to find out just what days we are talking about .....May 20, 1784 or May 20, 1783.....and what day of the week it was. Then if Joseph Morehouse's granddau was baptized on May 21, 1783, what day of the week that was. I think there is somewhere you can get that information, but I don't happen to know where. Perhaps I read about it on some genealogy program. But don't think Family Tree Maker has it. At least not my version. I would assume that they didn't baptize every day of the week, probably only on Sunday??

Think I will attach my information on the Tory circumstances. I also did one on the near neighbors of John Beers, as one of them was named as Nathaniel Fitch and I wondered if our Nathaniel 1682-1743 lived in that area. I guess in those days most Norwalk folks had land in a lot of areas and divisions as when they divided up the land each townsman got his share of it. Some probably lived on their land and others just farmed it and stayed in Norwalk proper. But by the time it got down to the next generation or so, they probably had to chose some place to live.

My work here is not scholarly but I just did it to help convince me we have the right John Fitch!! And that there wasn't a son of John Fitch and Lydia Bushnell still hanging around somewhere. I think if he was born, he didn't live long, or we would see more evidence that he did exist in some of the records. Seems all records point to John Fitch, son of Nathaniel.

So what I did with the Tory list was to find out what I could about possible people on that list by time frame and see how close they were to our John Fitch. Most appear to have some connection or another. The list only names them, so I had to find folks to fit that list. May or may not have picked the right ones. Some have 2 possibilities or more. Will stop for now. Let me hear from you if you discover anything more.

Betty

Dear Betty-
Good to hear from you. I haven't done much with what you sent last week as we've been busy with a family birthday. I did download your tory list. You've been busy.
I do not subscribe to ancestry.com so can't check on researchers working on Molly Morehouse. I did check rootsweb.com and there was no activity on her name there.(they are affiliated with ancestry.com and I thought might have researchers in common.)
As I mentioned originally I have just begun on this search myself.

You asked about the dates for Elizabeth Fitch King's children. They come from a filmed copy of the actual church records at the Weston Congregational Church. The marriage of Elizabeth and David King is also recorded in these records. Following is what I copied: 1768, 23 April, baptism Nathaniel Fitch son of David King; 1770. baptism Sarah Catherina, daughter of David King; 1774, baptism Elizabeth, daughter of David King.

As I said before I also found the marriage of John Fitch in the Norwalk Congregational Church records ; again, it was a filmed copy of the actual church records- not typewritten.
When I am looking at filmed copies of actual church records I believe them over abstracts that have been published in books.

Why don't you e-mail those two researches on ancestry.com and see where their info comes from. The DAR submission records if not done within the last few years, have no sources and proof, so aren't worth much.
Our e-mail address is the same. Comcast bought out the other carrier so that's why we are on comcast.
Ann

Hi Ann,

Just went to Ancestry.com to check on possible Molly Morehouse. Find that under "Molly Morehouse" born Nov. 25, 1760 she is given a husband of Freegift Patchin by two different researchers. And she is given 1 child in one of them and 2 children in another. They give her a death date of Aug. 2, 1844 in Blenheim, NY

Check it out, but she is listed as daughter of Joseph Morehouse and Hannah Banks.
Married in Sept. of 1784 to Freegift Patchin. Freegift 1758-1830 served as a fifer in the New York militia. Born in CT, died in North Blenheim, NY 1838 Molly gave affidavit in behalf of Sally Patchin, widow of Issac Patchin, that she was at their marriage. She was 77 years old at the time the affidavit was given.

So guess if this is accurate, then we still have to do more searching for Mary. Perhaps an e-mail to these researchers could give you more information on where they received their statistics, marriages, etc.

Have you changed your address to comcast.net?? Or can you be reached at either address??

Betty

Hi again,

I agree 100% that I would rather see the film of the original records of an event or church or census and would rely more on that than on someone's typed version of it. I usually use the typed version to get me to the right filmed version if possible.

I don't belong to Ancestry.com either, but the World Tree file is nearly always available to us on the internet as is the 1880 census. However, my first choice is to try the LDS site to see if they have anything that might point me in the right direction. Did not find a marriage for Molly there so tried Ancestry.com. Just occasionally they stop me when I try to access something. Usually after working on the site for quite some time. I think they think they will cause me to buy their product. And I would for a certain time, if I knew I would be free to use it to good advantage at that time. Since I do a lot of genealogy for the Huntertown Historical Society, it might be helpful to me, but about the time I sign up for a month, something will happen to my schedule and I will be unable to use it. For that reason I have never done it.

I went back and brought Freegift Patchin to see what sources they listed. Will add one of the entries here to give you the sources they used. I can't see after looking at it that to e-mail them would do any good. They pretty much tell us where they found their information.

A work in progress

The other researcher was rsts@capital.net and gives this added information which I will just type in

Original Source, 1950, The Mayham Family - 1795-1950, page 20

From "A History of the town of Jefferson 1771-1976" by Mildred L. Bailey, page 125-126:

(This excerpt tells of Freegift and his brother Isaac being taken prisoner by the Tories and his 2 year ordeal before he was freed to come home. Says nothing about his wife or family)

Also given is the 1810 census of Schoharie Co., Blenheim, New York which naturally doesn't list Molly by name, so doesn't help us much.

This researcher carries the family on down under Polly Antoinette Patchin, 1788, who married George Martin, named a child Freegift, and that child is carried on down also. Polly was buried in the Patchin Cemetery , N. Blenheim, Schoharie Co., NY.

I probably won't e-mail the researchers after looking this over as they pretty much give the sources of their information.

I tried to check in what I have in the Barbour Collection of Vital Records, but could not find a marriage for Molly and Freegift, but then I have a limited number that I copied from the books, and a limited number is online.

So I draw no conclusions on this. As I have said before, I tried the Perry name, the Seymour name and came up with nothing. I am hoping that I will be able to get to our library this summer and spend some time. I will order some of the LDS films to review as it is something I have wanted to do, but get involved in too many other things. I now have 4 great grandchildren, and our family seems to be growing by leaps and bounds! Always some activity to be going to.

Will close for now. I am so glad there is a good researcher out there! Have always thought you were the best. So far I have found no one else who acknowledges the Beers connection. Those I contact seem to just fade away in the woodwork when I mention Elizabeth Beers. I think most of them who have put the John W. Fitch and Elizabeth Hanford material on line, don't really belong to the family at all, and were just parroting what someone else had printed.

He was one of the 13 men who under the command of Captain Alexander Harper, in the vicinity of Jefferson and Hapersfield, was surprised by Joseph Brant and a group of Tories. He was taken prisoner with his brother, Isaac and they were marched to Niagara and imprisoned at Chamble, Ontario, Canada. They remained there in chains, for two years, suffering everything but death. Then they were transferred to Rebel Island where they remained until peace was declared. From Rebel Island they went to Montreal and then to Quebec where they boarded a "cartel ship" and went to Boston. After a near shipwreck, they arrived in Boston. At this time, Freegift said, "I once more set foot on soil of my native land and rejoice that it was a land of Liberty and Independence." There is no doubt that Isaac felt the same way.

Noting that a great percentage of folks in Norwalk had Tory leanings at the beginning, makes us not think too harshly about those that did. The above reference to the collecting of Mr. Leaming's rate shows that these folks went to Rev. Leaming's church which was the Church of England. Rev. Leaming was a well-known Tory and when the British invaders landed in 1779, he left with the British fleet, not to return to America as far as we know. He preached very strongly about the authority of government, and against any rebellion that might be happening. If you were a good churchman, then you would not be caught up in the rebellion; it would be a sin. The folks going along with him were no doubt the "church" folks who felt it wrong to do civil disobedience and were probably the strong, stable, folks of the community, working for the church and for the community. The ones we would respect today. Eventually many of them were either forgiven for their going against the Patriots or they changed their own minds over a period of time. The town of Norwalk, in the end, provided a committee who would review the folks who had gone "astray" and decide if they should be let back into the community. Most of the above men stayed in the area. A few moved away, a few went to Canada, but the majority of them were allowed to continue on with their lives right in their own community. Some stayed a while and then moved off to other communities on the frontier as did John Fitch.

Also we have John Lockwood, Jr. who is married to a Eunice and they had a baby baptized in the same church in Stamford.....on the same day.....as John and Molly Fitch, May 20, 1784. The Fitch baby was named Betsey.....and on the same day, Samuel Fitch and Olive Stuart had a baby baptized. Since all of these 3 couples came from the same area of Norwalk they probably all came together to have their babies baptized. Must check to see if it was a Sunday morning as they are quite a ways from their home in Northeast Norwalk.

David Morehouse, late of Fairfield, Nov. 2, 1736, Nathaniel Hays of Norwalk, was appointed guardian of Joseph, a son of decedent.

Children, recorded at Weston:

Daniel, born November 26, 1758

JEHU BURR

ORIGIN: Unknown
MIGRATION: 1630
FIRST RESIDENCE: Roxbury
REMOVES: Springfield 1636, Fairfield 1641
CHURCH MEMBERSHIP: "Jehu Bur" admitted to Roxbury church as member #12, which would be at or soon after the organization of the church in 1632 [RChR 74]. Made second largest contributions (after WILLIAM PYNCHON) to building a house for Rev. George Moxon and for his maintenance, 13 January 1638 [SpTR 1:15].
FREEMAN: Requested 19 October 1630 and admitted 18 May 1631 [MBCR 1:80, 366].
EDUCATION: Signed by mark articles of agreement founding Springfield, 14 May 1636 [NEHGR 13:297].
OFFICES: One of three Roxbury appointees to committee to oversee construction of cartbridges over Muddy River and Stony River, to connect Boston and Roxbury, 6 August 1633 [MBCR 1:107].

Appointed tax collector for Agawam [Springfield] by Connecticut General Court, 9 February 1637/8 [CCCR 1:12]. Springfield deputy to Connecticut General Court, 5 April 1638, 9 September 1641 [CCCR 1:17, 67]. Committee to set out the bounds of the plantation [Springfield], 3 January 1638/9 [SpTR 1:19].

Commissioner for "Uncowaue" [Fairfield] to gather contributions for "the maintenance of scholars at Cambridge," 25 October 1644 [CCCR 1:112]. Deputy for Fairfield to Connecticut General Court, 11 September 1645, 9 April 1646 [CCCR 1:130, 138].
ESTATE: On 12 January 1673 a record was made of the land held in Fairfield by John Burr and Jehu Burr "per virtue of the last will of his deceased father." John Burr had three and three-quarters acres in the Old Field, four acres in the New Field or Mill Plain, eight acres on Sascoe Hill, ten and a half acres and 20 rods in Great meadow, and two and a half acres and thirty-four rods of meadow in Sascoe Neck [Fairfield PR 4(reversed):27; Fairfield LR A:1:229]. Jehu Burr had a four acre homelot, eight and a quarter acres in the Old Field, eight acres on the Mill Plain, and sixteen acres on Sasqua Hill [Fairfield PR 4(reversed):55; Fairfield LR A:1:229].
BIRTH: By about 1605 based on estimated date of marriage (but possi~bly earlier if the eldest son was born some years prior to 1631).
DEATH: Fairfield by 1654 and perhaps earlier [FOOF 1:116].
MARRIAGE: By 1631 _____ _____. "_____ Bur the wife of Jehu Bur" admitted to Roxbury church as member #26, probably at or not long after the organization of the church in 1632 [RChR 75].
CHILDREN:

i JEHU, b. say 1631; "m. (1) after 1655, Esther, widow of Joseph Boosey of Westchester, and perhaps dau. of Andrew Ward; m. (2) by 1666, Elizabeth Prudden, dau. of Rev. Peter, bapt. at Milford, 11 Mar. 1642/3" [FOOF 1:118-20]. (The details on these two marriages are quoted directly from this source because Jacobus undertook an extended discussion of these complicated problems, and his work has not been superseded in this matter.)

ii JOHN, b. about 1633 (according to Jacobus deposed 1681 aged 48 [FOOF 121]); m. (poss.) (1) Mary Ward, daughter of ANDREW WARD [FOOF 1:119-21]; m. (2) by 1673 Sarah Fitch (she was not named in the will of her father, Thomas Fitch of Norwalk, but her brother John Fitch, executor of his father's estate, "engaged to give to the children of his deceased sister Burr the same amount which his other sisters had by will" [FOOF 1:205]).

iii NATHANIEL, b. say 1635; m. (1) by about 1662 Sarah Ward, daughter of ANDREW WARD [NYGBR 51:164]; m. (2) between 1692 and 1721 Hannah (Goodyear) Wakeman, daughter of Stephen Goodyear and widow of Samuel Wakeman [FOOF 1:632].

iv ELIZABETH, b. say 1637; m. (1) by about 1655 Nehemiah Olmstead; m. (2) about 1660 Obadiah Gilbert; m. (3) 1674 Nathaniel Seeley (on 21 June 1688 there were recorded "several parcels of land made over by Elizabeth Seely unto her two sons Obadiah and Beniamin Gilbert as she is executor of her husband Gilbert" [Fairfield LR 1:615]; see also FOOF 1:221, 452, 525-26).

v DANIEL, b. about 1642 (according to Jacobus deposed 1682 aged 40 [FOOF 123]); m. (1) Stamford [blank] February 1668/9 (or perhaps 1669/70) Abigail Brewster, daughter of Rev. Nathaniel Brewster [TAG 11:33, 13:116, 155]; m. (2) New Haven 11 December 1678 Abigail Glover [NHVR 1:47].

ASSOCIATIONS: Jacobus, in preparing his study of Fairfield families, noted the following: "He may have married more than once. The mother of Jehu, Jr., was quite likely sister of John Cable, Sr. There was prob. some relationship between the Burrs and the family of Nathaniel Perry" [FOOF 1:116]. See JOHN CABLE for further discussion on this relationship.
COMMENTS: Savage discoursed at length on the ease with which the given name of Jehu can be misread as "John," and how he and several other contemporary antiquaries had done so. This would be the explanation for the entry in Pope for a Mr. John Burr made a freeman on 18 May 1631.

On 1 March 1635/6 the General Court arranged for arbitration of a dispute between Jehu Burr and Mr. [Richard] Dummer [MBCR 1:164].

The birth date estimated for the eldest son, Jehu, is derived from the estimated date of his first marriage. There is, however, another record which indicates that he may well have been some years older. On 10 April 1645 Connecticut General Court ordered that "Jehue Burr the elder and Tho: Barlowe are to be warned to the next Particular Court" [CCCR 1:125]. Although a son need not be twenty-one before his father is referred to as "the elder," he would probably be more than fourteen, so it may be that Jehu was born as early as the mid-1620s, although this would seem to make him several years older than any other child. This would in turn imply that the elder Jehu Burr's marriage had taken place some years before 1631 (or perhaps there was another, earlier wife).

ORIGIN: London
MIGRATION: 1630
FIRST RESIDENCE: Boston
REMOVES: Braintree, Boston by 1653
OCCUPATION: Gunsmith.
CHURCH MEMBERSHIP: "Thomas Matson received by communion of churches from a church in London" as member #85 in Boston church, which would be in the winter of 1630-1 [BChR 14]. On 17 July 1636 "Thomas Matson formerly received by communion of churches, but now as a member upon confession of his faith and repentance and professed subjection to the Lord Jesus Christ according to the covenant of the gospel" [BChR 20]. On 16 February 1639/40 "Thomas Matson and Amye his wife" were recommended to the church at Braintree [BChR 27].
FREEMAN: 4 March 1633/4 [MBCR 1:368].
EDUCATION: He signed his will. His inventory included "Three Bookes of the Martyrs £2 10s." and "other books £1 10s."
OFFICES: Massachusetts Bay petit jury, 1634 [BTR 1:2]. Boston fence~viewer, 9 February 1634/5 [BTR 1:3]. Braintree selectman, 19 December 1642 [BrTR 2]. Committee to settle Braintree's claim to Mr. Coddington's land, 1640 [BrTR 1]. Boston constable, 12 March 1653/4 [BTR 1:118]. Sergeant of the train band by 1644 [BTR 1:80].
ESTATE: On 8 January 1637/8 (in accord with a town order of 14 December 1635) Thomas Matson received twenty-eight acres at Rumney Marsh and twenty-eight acres at Pullen Point [BTR 1:27-28]. On 29 April 1639 Boston selectmen ordered that "whereas our brother Thomas Matson was allotted for his great allotment at Rumney Marsh short by the number of two heads; therefore at the next allotting at Mount Woollystone that it shall be made up unto him at the end of the lot he hath now bought of our brother Edward Hutchinson the elder" [BTR 1:40].

On 29 July 1644 "the land within the common fence at Braintry near the Knight's Neck belonging to Boston is hereby sold unto Sergeant Matson, James Penniman, Moses Payne [and] Francis Eliot," and on the same day "Sergeant Matson hath liberty to mow about two loads of hay in the three-hill marsh at Braintry this year" [BTR 1:79-81].

On 13 April 1670 Theodore Atkinson Senior of Boston, feltmaker, "for the natural love & affection which I bear towards my brother-in-law Thomas Matson Senior of Boston ... & Anne [sic] his wife which was sister to my first wife Abigaile & towards their children & grandchildren & for their better preferment" granted to "Thomas Matson Junior, John Matson, Joshua Matson, Abigaile Matson, the three sons & daughter of said Thomas Matson, Sr., also, to Thomas Matson & Hannah Matson the son & daughter of Thomas Matson Junior & grandchildren of Thomas Matson Senior & to Anne [sic] Matson, John Matson & Mary Matson, being the two daughters & son of John Matson which is the second son of said Thomas Matson Senior," to all nine of them a parcel of land in Boston after Atkinson's death [SLR 6:333].

In his will, dated 9 June 1676 and proved 26 April 1677, "Thomas Mattson Senior of Boston ... smith, being aged and weak of body," bequeathed to "my dear & well beloved wife Amy Mattson the sum of £10 in money with all her wearing apparel for her to dispose of as she shall see meet"; "my said wife shall have the use ... of the house in which I now dwell with all the land now belonging to the same ... also all my household goods & plate for & during the term of her natural life"; to "my son Thomas Mattson all that my now dwelling house & land adjoining ... after my said wife's decease, he the said Thomas Mattson paying unto my son John Mattson the sum of £34 in money"; to "my daughter Abigall Wheatly wife of Lyonill Wheatly the sum of £14 in money"; to "my son Joshua Mattson the sum of £94 in money"; to "my daughter Abigall Wheatly wife of Lyonall Wheatly and to her children all that piece or parcel of land which I promised to give her upon & before her marriage"; to "my loving son-in-law Lyonall Wheatly the sum of £60 in money as a token of my love, which said sum he now owes unto me"; to "my son John Mattson all my half part of the shop that is now in the ... occupation of the said John Mattson ... at the head of the great dock in said Boston, with all my land behind the said shop"; to "my said son John Mattson the sum of £30 which said sum I formerly lent him and is still remaining in his hands"; to "my son Joshua Mattson the sum of £20 in money which said sum I formerly lent him"; residue at wife's decease "equally divided between my four children, namely Thomas Mattson, John Mattson, Joshua Mattson & Abigall Wheatly"; "my dear & loving wife Amy Mattson & my loving sons Thomas Mattson & Joshua Mattson" joint executors [SPR 6:182-85].

The inventory of the estate of "Thomas Matson Senior" was taken 20 April 1677 and totalled £735 8s. 6d., including £300 in real estate: "Housing, shop and the land, leaving what is bequeathed to Abigail Wheatley," £300 [SPR 12:143-44].

In her will, dated 28 February 1677/8 and proved 1 May 1678, "Amy Matson of Boston ... widow, being aged and weak of body, ... considering that my loving husband Thomas Matson deceased did in his last will & testament leave me some small matter to dispose of" bequeathed to "my grandchild Amy Mattson the daughter of my son John Matson £8 ... and my black gown and mohair petticoat & all my cloaks and my two best scarves and my Bible"; to "my daughter-in-law Mary Matson the wife of my son Thomas Matson my cloth serge petticoat"; to "my grandchild Thomas Matson the son of my son Thomas Matson 10s."; to "my grandchild Hannah Mattson the daughter of my son Thomas Matson 10s."; to "my daughter-in-law Jane Matson the wife of my son John Matson my jumpe"; to "my grandchild Mary Matson my murray-colored [i.e., purple-red, like that of the mulberry] petticoat and one scarf"; to "my daughter-in-law Elizabeth Matson the wife of my son Joshua Matson my red cloth petticoat and my cloth waistcoat that hath a silver and gold galloone upon it"; to "my grandchild Abigail Wheatly the daughter of my daughter Abigail Wheatly deceased 20s. in money to help toward her bringing up"; "my grandchild Amy Matson may have a featherbed & bolster and two blankets and a rug"; to "my grandchild Martha Wheatly ... a long broad box which my daughter Abigail Wheatly deceased did often desire of me and I promised to give it her & now after her decease I do give the same unto my said grandchild Martha Wheatly her daughter"; remainder of clothing to "grandchild Amy Matson the daughter of my son John Matson"; "my trusty and well beloved friends Jeremiah Fitch and John Oldin Senior" overseers [SPR 6:233].

BIRTH: About 1602 (deposed 26 January 1674[/5] aged seventy-three years [SJC #1432]). (He also deposed 2 March 1663 aged fifty years [SJC #607]. This would make him only seventeen when he arrived in New England, at which time he had already been a member of one of the independent churches of London; this seems too young, and there may be a simple scribal error of "50" for "60.")

DEATH: Between 9 June 1676 (date of will) and 26 April 1677 (probate of will).

MARRIAGE: By 1633 AMY CHAMBERS, born say 1613, daughter of Thomas

Chambers of Assington, Suffolk (see her sketch). She died between 28 February 1677/8 (date of will) and 1 May 1678 (probate of will).
CHILDREN:

i THOMAS, bp. Boston 27 October 1633 [BChR 278]; m. Boston 14 August 1660 Mary Read, widow [BVR 76].

ii JOHN, bp. Boston 10 July 1636 [BChR 280]; m. (1) Boston 7 March 1659/60 Mary Cotton, daughter of Sgt. William Cotton of Boston [BVR 72]; m. (2) by 1672 Jane _____ (eldest child b. Boston 2 February 1672 [BVR 124]).

iii JOSHUA, b. Braintree 23 July 1640 [NEHGR 3:247]; m. by 28 February 1677/8 Elizabeth Thomas, daughter of Nathaniel Thomas of Marshfield [TAG 70:138-41].

iv ABIGAIL, b. say 1642; m. by 1671 as his second wife Lionel Wheatley (last known child of Lionel and Eleanor Wheatley b. Boston 8 August 1668, and first known child of Lionel and Abigail Wheatley b. Boston 15 November 1671 [BVR 109, 120]).

ASSOCIATIONS: Amy (Chambers) Matson was elder half-sister to the first wife of Theodore Atkinson Sr. of Boston and aunt to John Pickering of Hartford (see AMY CHAMBERS sketch).
COMMENTS: On 20 November 1637 "Thom[as] Matson" was disarmed as a supporter of Wheelwright and Hutchinson [MBCR 1:212]. About 22 November 1637 he was one of those who withdrew their support for the petition in favor of Wheelwright and Hutchinson [WP 3:513].

Thomas Matson was a member of the jury which petitioned the General Court with regard to the judicial misbehavior of WILLIAM ASPINWALL, as a result of which Aspinwall was removed as county recorder on 23 October 1651 [MBCR 4:1:68].

NATHANIEL RICHARDS

ORIGIN: Unknown
MIGRATION: 1632 on Lyon [Hotten 150]
FIRST RESIDENCE: Cambridge
REMOVES: Hartford 1636, Norwalk 1652
OCCUPATION: Planter.
CHURCH MEMBERSHIP: Admission to church, probably Watertown, prior to 6 November 1632 implied by freemanship.
FREEMAN: 6 November 1632 [MBCR 1:367].
EDUCATION: His inventory included "books and earthenware" valued at £1.

OFFICES: Connecticut particular court jury, 4 September 1643, 29 October 1646 [RPCC 23, 44]; Hartford constable, appointed 7 March 1649/50 [RPCC 78]; deputy from Norwalk to Connecticut Court, 7 October 1658 [CCCR 1:323].

ESTATE: Granted one-half acre for a cowyard at Cambridge, 5 August 1633 [CaTR 5]; received a proportionate share of one in the undivided meadow grounds, 20 August 1635 [CaTR 13]; one "house" in town in list of 8 February 1635/6 [CaTR 18].

In the Cambridge land inventory on 10 October 1635 held four parcels of land: one house in town, with backside, about half a rood; one-half acre in Cowyard Row; three acres on Small Lot Hill; and three acres in the Great Marsh [CaBOP 27-28]. Some of this land was purchased by Thomas Chesholme [CaBOP 60].

Ten parcels of land recorded to Nathaniel Richards in Hartford: two acres with dwelling house; two roods three perches in Little Meadow; one acre two roods sixteen perches in North Meadow; parcel in North Meadow containing eight acres one rood eight perches of meadow and three acres one rood twenty perches of swamp; thirteen acres in old Ox Pasture; four acres two roods twenty-three perches in Cow Pasture; one acre two roods twelve perches on east side of Great River; five acres one rood seventeen perches in the Neck, part purchased from "Nathaniell Yele" and part formerly belonged to John Clark; one acre eight perches of meadow in North meadow, purchased of Mrs. Chester; and fourteen acres one rood twenty perches of woodland [HaBOP 52-54].

At unknown dates Norwalk granted to Nathaniel Richards eleven parcels of land: homelot of four acres and one rood; three acres of upland in the planting field called the neck; another parcel of upland of five acres and two roods; two parcels of upland at Fruitful Spring of five acres each; another parcel of five acres of upland; four acres of meadow; three roods of meadow; two acres and two roods in the Meadow Field; two acres of meadow; a parcel of reedy swamp meadow; and two acres of meadow lying by "Soakatucke River" [Norwalk TR 1:25-27].

In his will, dated 7 October 1681 and proved on an unknown date, "Nathaniell Richards" of Norwalk, "planter, aged seventy-seven years or thereabout," bequeathed to "my loving wife Rosimon Richards my dwelling house" and all the rest of the estate for life; after her decease estate to be distributed to "my son Joseph Ketcham," to "my son John Hait," to "my son John Fitch," and to "my son Ralph Keeler" [these were the sons-in-law of his second wife, married to the daughters she had with Henry Lindall]; to Samuell Haies a pasture lot; to "Reverend Mr. Thomas Hansford," pastor at Norwalk, £10; and to "Rebecah Garret (now Rebeckah Waller)" one cow and one yearling heifer [Fairfield PR Case #5210].

The inventory of the estate of "Nathaniel Richards of Norwake ... lately deceased" was taken 9 February 1681/2 and totalled £505 11s. 6d., of which £378 was real estate: "dwelling house, barn, orchard, homelot," £100; "one parcel of land called Fruitful Springs," £30; "one parcel of land consisting of upland and mowing land called Barren Marsh," £28; "one parcel of meadow in the Lower Meadows," £30; "one parcel of meadow lying on the west side of Soakutuck River," £4 10s.; "one parcel lying at calf pasture," £14 10s.; "one parcel of upland lying on Stickie Plain," £38; "one parcel of meadow called first division this side of the river and that in the planting field called the neck," £13; "two parcels of upland lying in Pine Hill division," £23; "one parcel of meadow lying in the planting field called Outmeadows," £10; "one parcel of meadow lying in the little meadow over the river," £30; "two parcels of upland lying in the [illegible] division, one bigger, one lesser," £10; "one parcel of land upon Strawberry Hill called a homelot," £5; "one pasture of land called pasture lot," £12; and "lands unmeasured out in the woods and commonage belong[ing] to the estate," £30 [Fairfield PR Case #5210].

On 14 March 1681/2 "Rosimon Richards," John Hayt, Ralph Keeler, John Fitch, Joseph Ketcham and Samuell Hayes agreed to the division of the estate [Fairfield PR Case #5210].

On 12 May 1682 "Rozimund Richards widow executrix to the will of her loving husband Nath: Richards deceased" recorded to Samuell Haies the parcel of land bequeathed to him [Norwalk TR 1:198].

BIRTH: About 1604 ("aged seventy-seven years or thereabout" on 7 October 1681 [Fairfield PR Case #5210]).

DEATH: Between 7 October 1681 (date of will) and 9 February 1681/2 (date of inventory).

MARRIAGE: (1) By an unknown date _____ _____ (said to be a widow Hayes, perhaps because of the bequest by Nathaniel Richards to Samuel Hayes). On 22 September 1659 John Winthrop Jr. at Norwalk treated "Richards, Nathaniel his wife" [WMJ 410].

(2) New Haven 15 March 1663/4 Rosamond Lindall, widow of Henry Lindall [NHVR 1:20]. On 21 May 1666 John Winthrop Jr. treated "Lendall, [blank], daughter of Rosamond Richards of Norwack" [WMJ 653]. Rosamond died after 12 May 1682 [Norwalk TR 1:198].

CHILDREN: None recorded.

COMMENTS: Ordered to provide three rods of fencing around the common at Cambridge in a list supposed to be dated 7 January 1632/3, but this list was compiled some time later [CaTR 5].

Does anybody have any information on an Edward Fitch born probably 1806-1815, son of William Fitch born 1768 and Sarah Hanford? William and Sarah also had son John, moved to Ohio and became a judge, daughter Mary, married Orren Bryant, daughter Nancy? and daughter Ann. They may have all moved West from New York to Ohio/Illinois.

Revolutionary War Military Abstract Card File - {series #13.50}

Arranged alphabetically by surname of soldier. The abstract card file contains transcriptions of data extracted from original records in the custody of the State Archives concerning Revolutionary War service in the Pennsylvania Militia, Pennsylvania Line, and the Navy. Note that duty after November 1783 is not considered Revolutionary War service. Information provided is name and rank of soldier, whether active or inactive duty, county of residence, battalion in which served, and record from which information was extracted. Also noted are whether soldier was delinquent and fined or whether militia fines were abated.

The entry "Active Duty" indicates that the soldier saw active duty in either the Pennsylvania Militia or the Pennsylvania Line while "Inactive Duty" indicates that the soldier did not necessarily see active duty. Associators were volunteers who comprised the Military Association, a civilian reserve designed to repel any invasion of Pennsylvania until the collapse of the Association in the winter of 1776-1777. The Pennsylvania Militia was organized under an Act of the Assembly of March 17, 1777 that required compulsory enrollment by constables of all able-bodied white males between the ages of 18 and 53 to repel invaders. The "Flying Camps" were special battalions of Pennsylvania Line troops recruited from the Pennsylvania Associators. Rangers were soldiers who served long periods of enlistment to protect the frontier against Indian incursions. Entries for Depreciation Pay Certificates apply to soldiers who served 1777-1780 when the currency was depreciating and were paid in Continental Bills of Credit that quickly lost value. To compensate for such depreciation, each soldier of the Pennsylvania Line who remained in service in 1781 was awarded a substantial sum in Depreciation Pay Certificates which were both interest bearing and negotiable. In addition, at the end of the war arrears and allowances due were met by issuing to each soldier still in service a number of interest-bearing final settlements called Pierce's Certificates (named after the paymaster who dispensed them).

Some cards show a certificate number that relates to the Militia Loan of 1784-1785. This loan was established to pay individuals for services and goods provided during the Revolutionary War that had not been reimbursed at that time. Note that not all certificate numbers give additional information.

PREFACE

The first impulse to the completion of this work came from seeing a brief family record kept by Mary Esther (White) Weed, late of Walton, N. Y., which showed in tabular form the six children of Seymour Fitch and Elizabeth Hoyt, with their children. That simple record has been gradually elaborated.

The greatest single contribution was made by Elizabeth (More) Cumming, late of Deposit, N. Y., who in 1934 put into my hands the material about the family of her grandmother, Elizabeth Betts (Fitch) Alverson. That material has been used as she furnished it, with a few later additions. Others who have been helpful by providing family records in written form are : Miss Susan E. Wakeman, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Mrs. Olive (Green) Gallentine, late of Morrison, Ill.; Miss Emma Brisack, Binghamton, N. Y.; Robert Graham Fitch of Laramie, Wyoming ; Mrs. Julia (Marvin) North, late of Walton, N.Y.; Rev. F. J. Fitch of Woodland, Mich ; Mrs. Hannah (Honeywell) Rose, of Windsor, Conn.; Linus Patchen, of Binghamton, N. Y.; Mrs. Georgiana (Pine) Knapp, of Walton, N. Y. And there are still others, not listed by name, who have answered inquiries, verified dates, and rendered many similar services, whose ready help is much appreciated.

Substantial assistance has been received from an expert genealogist, Edwin W. Wheat, of Brooklyn, N. Y., who, though not a relative, traces his lineage back to Walton families.

Acknowledgement is here due to Miss Sarah Hoyt of Walton, N. Y., who made available for publication the two documents found on pages 9, 11 - 13.

It will be observed that every name in the family record has a number attached. The numerical system that has been used to identify the individual and to show his generation deserves special attention ; it deserves also a special expression of thanks to the one who devised it. The system was worked out for the permanent record of the More family by Professor Charles Church More of the University of Washington, Seattle, Washington, and has long been in use in the published records of that family. The problem of the More family was identical with that of the present undertaking, namely, to make a complete record of the descendants of a single pair, whose children were all born in the last decades of the eighteenth century. The number prefixed to any given name consists of a series of digits, pronounced as one would pronounce a telephone number. For example, 5(12)3,8 would be "five, twelve, three, eight." This means that the person so numbered descended from the fifth child of Seymour Fitch and Elizabeth Hoyt, through the twelfth and the third, and is himself the eighth child. It is still easier to read the digits backward, as the eighth child of the third child of the twelfth child of the fifth child of the original pair.

The Genealogical Charts, pp. 89 - 102, afford a survey of the preceding Genealogical Record, and may serve instead of an alphabetical list of names.

The family record as it is here given is incomplete at certain points; it is not in all cases brought down to the present time; and no doubt it contains errors in what it offers. It is, nevertheless, a record, and is being put in a form which may be consulted by those who are interested.

In the case of two families where there has been intermarriage, reference is made to published works: The Genealogy of the Benedicts in America. By Henry Marvin Benedict. Albany, 1870. The Whites. By H. K. White, Detroit, 1906.

PART I

INTRODUCTORY

The six children of Seymour Fitch and Elizabeth Hoyt were born in New Canaan, Connecticut, and all of them settled in Walton, Delaware County, New York, or in the neighboring town of Franklin. The main purpose of this work is to make a record, as complete as possible, of their descendants. As an introduction to that general subject, the following account of the ancestry and of the three marriages of Seymour Fitch is given.

I

Seymour Fitch

1. THOMAS FITCH, immigrant (1612 - 1704), was born in Bocking, County Essex, England, the son of Thomas Fitch and Ann Reeve. There is documentary evidence that he was a citizen of Norwalk, Conn., in 1650. His younger brother, Rev. James Fitch[1], came to this country in 1638, and there is an independent tradition (see p. 16) that Thomas Fitch came from England "in 1638 in the ship Defiance." Thomas Fitch, son of Thomas Fitch and Ann Reeve, married Anne Stacie. Their children were Thomas, II, John, Mary, Ann, and Sarah.

2. JOHN FITCH, the second child of Thomas Fitch and Ann Stacie, was born in Bocking, England, in 1633. He came to this country with his parents and lived in Norwalk, Conn. He married Rebecca Lindall of New Haven, Conn., December 3, 1674. Their third child was Nathaniel Fitch, born November 6, 1682, in Norwalk, Conn.

3. NATHANIEL FITCH married Anna ———. Their son was Lindall Fitch, who became a member of the New

[1]The descendants of the two brothers, Thomas and James, are widely represented in this country (History of the Fitch Family 1, 96; 2, 1ff.). A third brother, Samuel Fitch of Hartford, Conn., had descendants (Ibid., 204-6). A fourth brother, Joseph Fitch, had as a great grandson John Fitch, inventor of the steamboat (Ibid. 2, 207ff.).

Canaan church August 10, 1755. He died March 24, 1773, aged 56, "of a consumption and gravel."

4. LINDALL FITCH married Mary Bartlett. Their son was Seymour Fitch of New Canaan, Conn., who was baptized June 27, 1742.

5. SEYMOUR FITCH served in the Ninth Company, Ninth Regiment of Connecticut Volunteers under Captain John Carter, General Wooster, and Colonel John Mead. He married first, on April 7, 1763, Elizabeth Hoyt, daughter of Ezra Hoyt and Phoebe Benedict. Rev. Robert Silliman performed the ceremony. Their children[2] were:

Seymour, II, b. May 14, 1764, baptized July 22, 1764;
Lindall, b. April 4, 1766, baptized June 1, 1766;
Ezra, baptized March 6, 1768;
Nathaniel, b. January 8, 1770, baptized March 4, 1770;
Asa, b. May 16, 1772, baptized July 19, 1772;
Hannah, b. September 24, 1775.

Seymour Fitch married second, Hannah Raymond. Their children were Thomas, Lewis, Abijah, Sally. There is a record in the family Bible of Cyrus Fitch that Thomas and Abijah removed to New York City. There is no available record of the other two children.

Seymour Fitch married third, Martha St. John, daughter of Nehemiah St. John, on July 17, 1783, in New Canaan, Conn. Their son was William Fitch, who died January 23, 1852, aged 63 years. He is buried in New Canaan.

Seymour Fitch died April 24, 1799 (New Canaan church record).

II

The Settlement in Walton, New York

The following sketch of Seymour Fitch, II, written by his son, Thaddeus Fitch, contains an account of two journeys from New Canaan to Walton, in the spring of 1789 and of

[2]In the "Journal of Family Visitation in Canaan Parish, 1772," by Rev. William Drummond, is the entry: "January 12, Seymour Fitch. Elizabeth, his wife; Seymour, Lyndel, Ezra, Nathaniel, Asa, children; widow Lydia Crawfoot."

1790. Thaddeus Fitch was six years old, when he made the journey of 1790.

Sketch of Seymour Fitch, as given by Thaddeus Fitch, his son.

Seymour Fitch was born in New Canaan, then a Parish in the town of Norwalk, Ct., in May, 1764. He was the son of Seymour and Elizabeth Hoyt Fitch of New Canaan, Ct., and grandson of Lindal Fitch, who, it is supposed, came over from England. He had four brothers, viz., Lindal, Ezra, Nathaniel, and Asa, and one sister, Hannah. who married David Benedict. These all settled in this town [Walton, N. Y.].

Seymour Fitch came to this town in 1789. In the spring of that year he left New Canaan in company with Thaddeus Hoyt, Matthew Benedict, Silas Benedict, and his brother, Lindal Fitch, coming by way of Catskill, Harpersfield, &c. to Walton.

They found a few families here; amongst them were the Johnsons, Pines and Townsends. They selected a lot then called the Mountain[3] lot, and divided it between them. This lot is now occupied by Geo. M. Hanford, Edward Hoyt, Dea. A. Hoyt. Here they commenced a clearing and by joining works put up each a log house and made what preparation they could for moving their families the next spring.

They worked here till fall and then went back to Connecticut, except Thaddeus Hoyt who staid till about Christmas to work at shoes. In the spring of 1790 Seymour Fitch and family, consisting of wife and four children, in company with David St. John, Lindal Fitch and Eben Hoyt and families, left New Canaan about the first of April for this new home in the far off settlement of Walton. This journey occupied four weeks and four days, being detained some days near the foot of Catskill Mountain by a heavy fall of snow, and as the country was new and fodder scarce they had to cut browse for their cattle and horses as in fact they had to do most of the way after leaving the older settlements on the North river.

In crossing the Catskill Mountains what road there was was rough and steep and some of the way was covered with water from the melting snow to the depth of several inches, in which men, women and children were frequently obliged to walk. The journey that distance and in that season of the year, a good share of the way through the wilderness and without roads, was not accomplished without much hardship, many trials, and very much of incident which if written out would look much more like romance at the present day than the reality it was to our fathers. The journey was performed with a cart drawn by two yoke of oxen, Mr. Fitches father-in-law, Elijah Hoyt, coming to move them here. The road then in use to get onto the Mountain went from Capt. Johnson's, where Peter Wright now lives, past where George Kilpatrick now lives, to right up the hill back of his house, which road was used 2 or 3 years, when a road was worked out over the hill past where O. Bowker lives, coming out at C. St. John's.

[3]The "Mountain" is the same as "Dunk Hill." See frontispiece.

III

The Catskill Turnpike

When Thaddeus Fitch writes "by way of Catskill, Harpersfield, &c. to Walton" he undoubtedly refers to the route which later became the Catskill Turnpike, or the Susquehanna Turnpike. Timothy Dwight, in the fourth volume of his Travels in New England and New York, in describing his journey to Niagara Falls, begun September 19, 1804, refers to places on the turnpike, including Harpersfield, Franklin, and Wattles' Ferry, on the south side of the Susquehanna near Unadilla. He writes, p. 25 : "The road on which we had traveled since we left Kaatskill is called the Susquehanna Turnpike. It commences at Kaatskill and terminates at Wattles' Ferry." Again, on p. 18 ; "In the morning, September 25, we proceeded on our route through a part of Blenheim, a part of Jefferson, a corner of Stamford, and through the townships of Harpersfield, Kortright, to Meredith : thirty-seven miles." And on p. 22 : "In the morning we left Meredith, and passed through Franklin and a corner of Sidney, to Unadilla : twenty-eight miles."

If the new settlers in Walton came from Catskill by way of Harpersfield, they undoubtedly reached Walton, not by the now familiar road down the west branch of the Delaware but by way of Franklin. There was in fact no road as early as 1790 down the west branch, if we are to accept the story preserved in Gould's History of Delaware County, p. 156. The first grist mill in the town of Walton, the East Brook Mill, was built in 1793, we are told. The millstones "were brought from Kingston on the snow, as far as Benjamin Barlow's, in Stamford, from which place to Walton there was then no road, and they were compelled to leave the stones until the river opened in the spring, when the stones were lifted upon two canoes, which were placed side by side and lashed firmly together. In this manner they were floated to within two miles of their destination."

IV

An Alternative Route

An alternative route from the Hudson River to Walton was by way of Kingston Point to Marbletown, then up the Esopus creek, over Pine Hill to the headwaters of the east branch of the Delaware, then down stream and over Colchester mountain to Walton. In the "turnpike era"—the early nineteenth century—a turnpike was projected, following this general route. An act was passed by the New York Legislature in 1802 "to establish a Turnpike Corporation, for improving and making a road from the West Line of the Town of Salisbury in the State of Connecticut, to the Susquehanna River at or near the town of Jerico [Bainbridge]." This was the Ulster and Delaware Turnpike, locally known as the Esopus Turnpike. It followed the general course above indicated, but crossed the divide between the valleys of the east and west branches of the Delaware by way of Andes and Cabin Hill. Although the turnpike as a whole was never completed, sections of it were built which continue to bear the name, as in Walton. The map on page 4 shows the misspelled name "Eusopas."

The first settlers, the Townsends, the Norths and the Pines, reached Walton in 1785, coming by the Esopus route and crossing the divide at what is now Downsville. Their journey is described in Gould's History, pp. 150 - 5. An account of a journey over this route in 1790 is given in a hitherto unpublished paper concerning Thaddeus Hoyt, prepared by his grandson, Amasa Lewis Hoyt, in 1867. This account is here given because in many points it supplements the briefer narrative of Thaddeus Fitch, given above. Thaddeus Hoyt, Seymour Fitch, II, and Lindall Fitch made the journey of exploration together in 1789, and all three returned with their families the next year.

Thaddeus Hoyt of Walton

My grandfather, Thaddeus Hoyt, son of Matthew and Mary (Lockwood) Hoyt, was born in New Canaan, Fairfield County, Ct., Nov. 21, 1763. Of his boyhood I know but little but think he must have received a good common school education for those days.

He was born a British subject, was 13 years old at the commencement of the Revolutionary war and was too young to enter the regular service but for the last two or three years of the war he was enrolled as a Minute Man in the Home Guards, and was often called out in times of supposed or real danger, and did some duty in watching the "Cow Boys" etc. He learned the shoemaker's trade, serving his time with a Mr. Roselle of New Canaan.

In 1785 at the age of 22 years he married Jemima Benedict. She was the daughter of Ezra and Mary Benedict.

Soon after this, a new settlement on the Delaware River in the State of New York began to attract considerable attention and in the spring of 1789 my grandfather in company with Matthew Benedict, a cousin of his, started on foot to explore this new country, a journey of 300 miles some part of the way without roads, sometimes following old Indian trails and sometimes traveling in paths that could be traced only by marked trees.

Arriving at the place of their destination they found a few families already here, among which were the Pines, Norths, Townsends, and Johnsons, but beyond the small clearing each had made the country was one unbroken wilderness. Here they selected a lot of land, commenced a clearing, and during the summer put up each a log house, sowed some winter grain and made what preparation they could for bringing their families the next spring.

Upon the spot then selected grandfather made a home for his family and here he lived and died, and his son, Dea. Amasa Hoyt still occupies the old homestead.

In the fall his companion went back to Ct. but he being a shoemaker at the earnest request of the settlers already here staid and worked at shoes till Christmas, as for shoe making he could get grain when he could not for the money, and thus make provision for his family until he could raise it,—but so anxious was he to get it done and get back to his family that at the close of many a day he had been so busy he could not have told whether the sun had shone or not—and often working until midnight.

In the spring of 1790 he moved his family consisting of his wife and two children, Benedict, about four years old, and Thaddeus, about eight months, to this place bringing his family, household goods, tools etc. in an ox-cart, the journey occupying three weeks and was one of great labor. My grandmother's father, Ezra Benedict, came with them bringing a horse with them to ride back and to be used in an emergency in the journey here.

They came from New Canaan up to and crossed the North River at Kingston, and thence up the Rondout Creek and over Pine Hill on to the Popacton, or east branch of the Delaware River, and down that river to where Downsville now is, and thence over the mountain to the west branch, striking the river about three miles above Walton.

After leaving the older settlements on the North River, they found very poor roads which grew gradually worse as they advanced into the wilderness till at length they found none at all, and were obliged to make them, and when they got tired of that they took to the bed of the river (the Popacton), where they found pretty precarious traveling, sometimes finding themselves in deep water where it was difficult to keep right side up.

I have often heard grandmother speak of the hardships of this journey and of the difficulty of getting along without roads.

She used to say that for many nights the men's shoulders would be bruised and black from lifting up the cartwheels to get over obstructions they had not time to remove. Of another circumstance of this journey I have often heard her speak. As they were crossing the Popacton, or east branch they got a chest of drawers that contained their choicest store of linen and other clothing wet, and it was necessary to unpack and dry the articles, but if they took the time necessary to do this they could not get through that week. So they reluctantly left it with a family by the name of Sprague who offered to dry, pack, and care for them till they could come after them, which they did the next winter and found everything in good order, not the least article missing, nor would they take anything for their trouble.

Near the close of the third week after leaving New Canaan, they arrived at Walton, the place of their destination, and in this wilderness they earnestly set themselves at work to make them a home. I believe they were the first family that settled in this town from New Canaan. A few families came later that season and for the next ten years a large number of families who were acquaintances, neighbors, and very many of them relatives from New Canaan settled in this town: among the latter Ezra Benedict, my grandmother's father, Seymour, Lindal, Asa, Nathaniel, and Ezra Fitch, my grandfather's cousins: Matthew, James, Billie, and David Benedict, cousins of both grandfather and mother. My grandfather's uncle, John Hoyt and his son, Ezra; Sellick St. John and Silas Benedict who married grandfather's sisters and other families of Hoyts, Benedicts, St. Johns, Hanfords, Seymours, etc.

VI

The First Homes

According to the statement of Thaddeus Fitch, above quoted, Seymour Fitch and Lindall Fitch settled on the Mountain. Seymour had the farm later owned by George M. Hanford, and Lindall the adjoining one later owned by Edward Hoyt. In the near-by cemetery, on the farm once owned by Amasa Lewis Hoyt, are buried Lindall Fitch, his wife Elizabeth; also Elizabeth Fitch Nash, daughter of Seymour Fitch, Hiram Fitch, son of Seymour Fitch, and George N. Green, a grandson of Elizabeth Fitch Nash. Seymour Fitch and his wife, who spent their last years with their son-in-law, Ira Benedict, who lived in Northfield, are buried there.

No record of the home of Ezra Fitch has been found.

Nathaniel Fitch had his home on the slope of Mount Pleasant, also known as Fitch Hill, and earlier as Louse Hill. The map of Walton in 1842, on p. 4, shows that in the early period there was only one road connecting the village with the valleys of the East and West brooks, and that this one road was by way of Mount Pleasant, where the main road forked, one branch leading to the grist mill or to the Mountain or to the East Brook region, the other branch leading, as now, up West Brook. This original road, as it left the level of the village, bent to the right at the foot of Mount Pleasant and climbed the ascent without a bend. It was, in later times, called the Stony Road. What is left of it is now the continuation of Bruce Street. Near the top of the Stony Road was the acre of land which, according to tradition, Nathaniel Fitch bought of Robert North in 1802 for twenty-seven dollars. Here he built his blacksmith shop on the east side of the road, and his home on the west side. He also owned separate pieces of land along the old road which led from the Mountain to the village, the road described in the final sentence of the account of Thaddeus Fitch, above quoted.

The family record of Asa Fitch refers to those of his children who were born after he had moved from New Canaan as having been born on "Fitch Hill and Pine's Brook." "Fitch Hill" is Mount Pleasant, and the home of Asa Fitch was that which, in 1869 when Beers' Altas was published, was occupied by William L. St. John. The children of Asa Fitch had many associations with Pine's Brook and with the river region, also with the region toward Masonville. The oldest child, Elizabeth, wife of Thomas Alverson, lived on the Alverson farm in Beerston. The daughter Lucretia was married to Lewis Patchen, and lived on Pine's Brook. John Fitch married Betsy Schofield of Masonville, and she with three children is buried in the old Masonville cemetery. Cyrus Fitch, his wife, and two of his children are buried in the same cemetery. Damaris Lucilla Fitch, wife of Albert Pine, lived in Pinesville. Asa Fitch and his wife were originally buried on the Patchen farm on Pine's Brook.

No record has been found of the home of Hannah Fitch, who was married to David Benedict, except that it was in the adjoining town of Franklin.

The Elizabeth Fitch Sampler

A valuable family record is preserved on a sampler, made by Elizabeth Fitch in 1828, at the time of her marriage to Eliphalet Seeley. The sampler has stitched upon it the record of the family of Lindall Fitch, carried down to the year 1828. A few entries were subsequently made. The following is an exact copy of the original, which is in the possession of Miss Emma Brisack, a grand-niece of Elizabeth Fitch Seeley.

Lindul Fitch born April 4, 1766.
Elizabeth Benedict was born October 17, 1767.
LF EB were married January 22, 1789.
Ezra Fitch was born October 17, 1789.
Caleb Fitch was born December 18, 1791.
Mehitabel Fitch was born November 29, 1793.

Characterization

A praiseworthy effort to preserve for future generations the early history of Walton and its pioneer families was made in 1857. Under the initiative of E. P. Berray, editor of the Walton Journal, a series of historical articles appeared in that paper. The form in which this material was finally cast was largely due to the Reverend Julius Seneca Pattengill, pastor of the First Congregational Church of Walton from 1848 to 1868. The following characterization of the Fitch family is undoubtedly from his pen.

There are a large number of the Fitches who have lived in town or have been connected with the Congregational church in this place or at New Road. They have a good reputation for moral character and industrious habits; not aspiring for worldly distinction or political power, but in private life forming an important filling in the construction of socety. Most of them have enjoyed competence, and few, if any, have amassed wealth; generally too cautious to venture much, they have never struck out upon schemes of speculation but have usually occupied a position of safe anchorage in social and financial life.

The following pen picture of Mrs. Anna Fitch White, daughter of Nathaniel Fitch, and sister of Nathaniel Fitch, II, will serve as another characterization of the earlier generation. It was drawn by her granddaughter, Mrs. Anna White Mell, daughter of William N. White, and wife of Patrick Hues Mell, late of Atlanta, Ga. It was composed somewhat earlier than 1900.

Anna Fitch, the mother of William N. White of Athens, Ga., was born near Stamford, Ct., January 15, 1795. She was a descendant of the well known Fitch family of Connecticut; Thomas and James Fitche came from Bocking, County Essex, England, in the ship Defiance in 1638. Thomas settled in Norwalk, Ct. and was the ancestor of Thomas Fitch, the Governor of his native colony. Anna Fitch belonged to this line. Her grandfather, Seymour Fitch, was a soldier in the Revolution, serving under Captain John Carter, General Wooster, and Colonel John Mead, at White Plains, Conn. Militia, 1776-7. See Record of Men of Connecticut, p. 485.

Anna Fitch was the daughter of Nathaniel Fitch and Anna Smith. Her father died about the time she was married, but her mother lived to a good old age. Mrs. Fitch was a woman of great intelligence and piety; a constant reader of good literature, a taste inherited by her descendants. After her husband's death she led regularly the family worship with her children, and she talked and prayed in the church meetings, although this was very unusual for a woman in those days. It was said that "her rocker was consecrated," for her quiet moments were devoted to prayerful meditation; her grandchildren remember hearing her pray in the night "for her posterity to the latest generation," and her prayers were answered, for all of her children and grandchildren and most of her great-grandchildren have been faithful followers of the Master.

In 1801, when Anna Fitch was six years old, her father took his family to Walton, N. Y., and became one of the first settlers of that lovely little town on the banks of the Delaware. Life is primitive in pioneer regions and Anna was well instructed in all domestic arts; some of their home-spun and woven woolen blankets, linen sheets and tablecloths are still in the possession of the family, bearing testimony to the wonderful industry of those times. Mrs. Fitch was a woman of "faculty," and Anna inherited her energy and ability.

September 16, 1818, she was married to Anson White of Stamford, Ct., and they lived there until 1827 when they moved to Walton, making their home there. After her marriage, she was an invalid for several years and though confined to her bed for a long time kept perfect control of the details of her family life, and with great executive ability managed her domestic matters from the dairy in the basement to the contents of the attic. After her removal to Walton her health began to improve, and although she was frail until the end of her life she was able to actively supervise her home and is described as a model housekeeper. Her word was law; her children loved but dared not disobey her, for punishment was sure to follow.

William, the eldest child, was a bright active boy with a keen imagination which led him to conceive and execute unheard-of pranks. The younger children of course always followed him into all mischief with the greatest admiration, and many scrapes and adventures resulted. His father was good-natured and indulgent, and a sense of amusement was often too strong for his sense of discipline; but his mother, always firm and decided, never yielded a point that she had made. When she pressed her lips together and said, "Say no more about it," no amount of teasing could move her from her position. She was proud of her gifted son, but she did not spoil him; facile princeps, he took honors in all his preparatory schools and in his college classes, but his mother did not overvalue his abilities or feed his vanity with fond praises.

She was greatly interested in church work and especially in foreign missions, when this branch of church duties was in its infancy. She made one of her daughters a member of the Foreign Mission Society at the age of twelve, and this daughter has paid her dues regularly for 65 years to the present day. She was one of the first to be interested in all moral reform movements such as total abstinence, etc. Like her mother, her love of reading was a passion and her children were early accustomed to read aloud and to listen to the best literature. Travels were especially popular: Anson's Travels (Who has heard of it in these days?), Captain Cook's Voyages, Robinson Crusoe, etc., down to Kane. Then there were Silliman's Journals and the Dutchman's Fireside. Paulding, Cooper and Scott delighted them in fiction, and there were worlds of pleasure to be found in Irving's works. When William went away to boarding school and college he would return always with fresh books for vacation reading. He was fond of repeating to her such poems as pleased him, and she would enjoy them as much as he.

With such maternal influences over his childhood and youth he naturally grew up to a cultured, noble manhood. Her wise and careful training which never relaxed its vigilance and never allowed tenderness to condone faults, the truth and nobility of her character, her excellent literary tastes and intellectual gifts all made a lasting impression upon his character and life.

He inherited from her a delicate constitution, and when he graduated was obliged to go South for his health. He located in Athens, Georgia, where he soon became noted, not only as a man of letters but as an authority upon agricultural and horticultural matters. His Gardening for the South, first published in 1856, is said to have worked wonders in improving Southern horticulture and is still ranked as the best authority.

In spite of her failing health, Anna Fitch White lived for nearly twenty years after her son went South. His visits North and frequent letters were the greatest pleasures of her later years. She died on July 22, 1864. Owing to the strict blockade maintained during the Civil War, many months elapsed before news of her death reached her son, and his pleasure in revisiting his old home afterwards was sadly marred by the absence of its central figure.

Prompt et Certain is the motto on the Fitch coat of arms, and it was exemplified in the life of Anna Fitch White. With judgment quick to see the right thing, and determination to do it without delay, she discharged all life's duties faithfully and is now reaping her eternal reward.

1. Never proves that John Was John W.
2. Need proof of Wm. S. Fitch - didn't he belong to the other
3. Proof it was John, Jr. who died in 1792 (This is prob. true)

No William was found in the will of Eliz. Ellis who would have been his grandmother. Named in 1777-78 was John Jr. Gideon - 1771 Nevermind that there been a Wm before that time who would have named him unless he had died before 1777

EIGHTH GENERATION

~~son of John, grandson of Nathaniel~~ Son of Nath'l

80 ii. John W #4 FITCH. No "W" – b. abt 1737

iii. Elizabeth FITCH was born about 1746 in Norwalk, Fairfield Co, CT.

iv. Susannah FITCH was born about 1747 in Norwalk, Fairfield Co, CT. She died before 1766.

Return to Table of Contents

There is no proof John Fitch ever married an Eliz. Hanford

The John Fitch who had these children married Eliz. Beers – not Hanford

This was here proven by deeds & land contracts

Marge is very confused here.

NINTH GENERATION

Gary B. Fitch11 (eldest son of Dudley10 and Elsie, at "Ontario Orchards, =
Inc., 638 Lake Street, P.O. Box 10, Wilson, NY 14172; (716) 751-9331; = fax 6141) wrote to family members, in April, 1998:

"In the late 1960's, I was left several bibles, books, and other = genealogical materials from Ray & Mabelle Fitch. I could see where my = grandmother, Mabelle Wright Fitch, had traced the family genealogy back = to Matthew Fitch and could not proceed any further. One reason was that = there was an Enoch Fitch [born in Hillsdale in 1780] in Matthew Fitch = II's [Matthew6 b.1744] family, but our two Enochs were the sons and = grandsons of Matthew III [Matthew7 b.1776]. It was a case of two = brothers, Matthew and Enoch, yet Matthew named one of his sons Enoch. = (Not too swift.) Thomas Jr. [Thomas1 b.1612] and Ann Stacey came to = America with son, John Sr. [John2 b.1635] yet some books show there were = 11 children in all.

"Not much information on any of them except Reverend James Fitch who is = not even listed in our listing. I also included three pages about John = Fitch II [John3 b. 1677]: two pages on his will and one on family. As = you can see, he was born in Norwalk, Conn. and moved to New Canaan, = Conn. Matthew Fitch I [Matthew4 b.1708], married twice and raised 9 = children in all, at Norwalk, Conn. It was his son, Matthew Fitch II =
[Matthew5 b.1744], that moved from Norwalk to Hillsdale in Columbia = County, New York just after the start of the Revolutionary War. His = first child that was born in Hillsdale was Matthew III [Matthew6 = b.1776], his forth child of nine total. Matthew II [Matthew5 b.1744] was = the gallant soldier of the Revolutionary War. It was his son, Matthew = III [Matthew6 b.1776], that pushed westward to Riga, south of Rochester, = NY with his wife and 7 children. He died the next year in 1812. Two of = his sons, Matthew Seymour and Enoch [Enoch7 b.1809] moved west again in = 1830 to what is now Fitch Road, Wilson. Matthew [Matthew6 b.1776] died 2 = years later and Enoch [Enoch7 b.1809] acquired his farm where he raised = 6 sons and 5 daughters on 200 acres. The youngest of these children was = named Enoch Jr. [Enoch8 b. 1855] after his own father. (This time) Enoch =
Jr. [Enoch8 b. 1855] raised 3 daughters and 2 sons on the Fitch = homestead. He died on April 21, 1905 of spinal meningitis, just 21 days = before his youngest son, Morris, died of the same disease. The only = survivor of the father and two sons was Ray S. Fitch [Ray Sanford9 =
b.1884].=20

"This past June of 1997, Russell and Dorothy Fitch stopped at my office = at the Wilson Cold Storage to drop off a letter dated March 4, 1938 from = Howard Fitch of Kansas City, Kansas. I have included a copy of this = letter along with an abstract of the "Genealogy of Fitch Family" and = also an article dated December 23, 1937 by J. L. Ferguson. This article is about Aunt Sarah Simmons (third child of Enoch [Enoch7 b.1809] and = Lucina), who lived a few months of her 100th birthday. As you can see, = this genealogy follows very closely with what I have just completed. I = would ask each of you to check over very closely any materials your = parents may have on the Fitch Family Genealogy. I would appreciate it = very much if you would share anything you may come up with.

=

"Enclosed you will find a membership application for the Wilson =
Historical Society of which I have the pleasure of serving as President
=
this year. I will record and deposit a copy of the Fitch Family =
Genealogy at the Wilson Historical Society as well as with the Niagara =
County Historian Society in Lockport. The Society turns out a newsletter every month and from time to time list happenings around Wilson during = the 1800's. We would like to have as much support, as possible, from the
=
=
Fitch Family.

"I had some unexpected but very pleasant guests arrive at my office last
=
September. Russ Jr, Sandy and Wendy Fitch were home for their mother and father's 60th wedding anniversary. Looks like we will be having a Fitch
=
=
Family Reunion in the summer of 1999. Please try to arrange your = schedule for that time and the Russell Fitch family will let you know = the exact time and place.

"If any of you need the authenticity to join the Daughters of the = American Revolution (DAR) or the Sons of American Revolution (SAR), I = can provide this for you. You should be able to provide it yourself with the enclosed genealogy dating back to Matthew [Matthew5 b.1744] and = Sarah Reed [Sara Richards Reed; b. 1750; d. 1789] as positive = documentation of the Soldier's of the American Revolution. If your group does not accept this, please contact me.
=
=

"So, what is next? I am working on the four Fitch brothers that were in the Civil War (Sons of Enoch [Enoch7 b.1809] and Lucina Church). Oldest
=
=
Seymour, joined Co.F-13th Illinois Calvary and was promoted to Sargent = in the Confederate forces. Henry had gone to Louisiana when he was 19 = years old and was processed into the Confederate. Elihue C. and Augustus each joined the N.Y. 23rd Battery in the town of Porter about a week = apart in August of 1862. Any help will be greatly appreciated in = locating their civil war records."
=

Gary enclosed a copy of a type-written letter by Howard A. Fitch, dated =
March 4, 1938, on stationery bearing a letterhead for "Kansas City =
Structural Steel Company - Kansas City, Kansas" with a logo of the AISC
=
(American Institute of Steel Construction, Inc., * Founded 1921). It = reads:

I am writing this joint letter to my cousins and your cousins, all, I = believe, grandchildren of Enoch and Lucina Fitch.

I am sending you, under separate cover, a copy of Memoirs prepared by my father, Seymour M. Fitch and dated Kansas City, Mo., June 18, 1909. This was about three years before he died. These contain quite a history of = the Fitch family, going back to the birth of his grandfather, Matthew = Fitch, who was born in 1776. Undoubtedly these will be interesting to = all of you.
=
=

Also enclosed is "Abstract" of the genealogy of the Fitch family, which will explain itself.

In reading over the Memoirs, I do not find where my father mentioned the date of birth of our grandfather, Enoch Fitch. This was given correctly in the Abstract as February 12, 1809, this being the exact day on which
=
=
=
Abraham Lincoln was born.

I also am enclosing a newspaper clipping from the Warrensburg Daily = Star, regarding the life of our Aunt Sarah.

I am indebted to cousin Grace Prudden for furnishing me the abstract = from which these copies have been made, also for furnishing the names = and addresses of the various cousins as above.

Trusting that you will find all of this interesting, and with my best = regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

/s/ Howard A. Fitch"

(Note: The clipping is from pages 1 and 3 of The Warrensburg Daily Star, = Thursday, December 23, 1937, with the header: "Three Warrensburg = Residents Celebrate Birthdays and Christmas on the Same Day" The = article, by J. L. Ferguson, digressed to mention of "Two Favorite Aunts" = - one being "Mrs. Sarah Simmons," the aunt of Howard A. Fitch8. The = portion dealing with Sarah (Fitch)7 Simmons reads:

"Perhaps Warrensburg's finest character was Mrs. Sarah Simmons who = celebrated her ninety-ninth birthday December 25, 1935. She lived only a = few months of her hundredth year. She was a church member some ninety = years and active most of them. She had a rare tribute paid her by her = nephew, Howard Fitch, a prominent and substantial citizen of Kansas City = who was born, reared and educated in Warrensburg. Mr. Fitch wrote about = his Aunt Sarah:

"To me Aunt Sarah was always a mother. In my babyhood days she cared for = me in my mother's absence. Her's was the home we always enjoyed being = at. During the long years after my mother's death and after moving from = Warrensburg, her home was my Mecca, in my thoughts, and in my many = visits back to the old home town. To a wandering person there always = remains a sentimental feeling toward the home of his childhood.=20

A Comfort and Inspiration

"So it was that her home and her sympathy were mine. My work, my plans, = and my interests were also always hers. To her home we went for comfort = and advice. From her home we buried our dead. Now the long and useful = and beautiful life is ended. We lay her away with a sense of = thankfulness that she was given unto us for comfort and inspiration; a = feeling almost akin to joy as we think of her victory of the trials and = tumults and sorrows of a long life. Constancy of purpose, never = faltering, never complaining, never criticizing; cheerfulness, = helpfulness, and sunshine were her crown jewels.

"Her's is the victory; ours the heritage. The world was made better = because of her life. The star of hope for a more abundant life and a = more perfect civilization shines brighter, when we consider how in the simpler walks of life God has given us so many examples of noble men and women."

The following information was presented with Gary's 1998 letter:

"JOHN FITCH II, born Sept. 29,1677, in Norwalk, Conn. Married ------ Lydia Bushnell, one of the seven daughters (no sons) of Francis Bushnell. This Bushnell youth (Francis) was a contribution to the Norwalk settlement. His wife, Hannah, to whom he was married Oct 12, 1675, was, on that date, twenty years and eight months old, to a day. She was the oldest daughter of Thomas Seymour I, son of Richard I, and the first fruit of his happy marriage to a daughter of Matthew Marvin, Sr., Hannah, who was a young lady (born in England) of sixteen, when her father moved from Hartford to Norwalk. Francis and Hannah Bushnell founded a home at the foot of Strawberry Hill, Norwalk, and their old well, probably jointly used with Barnum's (Thomas Barnum was next neighbor) can be seen today a little north of the home of the late Daniel Fitch in Norwalk. Francis Bushnell was one of the founders, in 1685, of Danbury, Conn., and died in 1697, some years, evidently, before his daughter, Lydia (mentioned fourth, in children's order, in his inventory), married John Fitch II.

John Fitch II removed to New Canaan, then a parish of Norwalk, and settled upon Clapboard Hill, a scenic tableland about four miles distant from the village of Norwalk, where he and his posterity owned a large tract of land.

The Church of New Canaan was founded June 20, 1733, and John Fitch and his wife, Lydia, were among the original members. The Church record shows the death of Lydia Fitch (widow) Aug.25, 1786, in the 103rd year of her age.

New Canaan was incorporated as a separate town in 1801, being formed from portions of Norwalk and Stamford. The will of John Fitch II, dated Aug. 25, 1740, was proved in the Fairfield Probate Court, Feb 8, 1760. The testator devises considerable land in New Canaan to his sons, Matthew I, Theophilus and Bushnell Fitch, and gives legacies to his daughters, Rebecca Richards and Lydia. No mention is made in the will of his son John Fitch III, or the latter's children.

The WILL OF JOHN FITCH3 Grandson of Thomas Fitch1 of Norwalk, proved at Fairfield Probate Court, Feb 8, 1760, and recorded in Fairfield Probate Records, 1747-61, p. 445, was also enclosed by Gary:

"In the name of God, Amen. I, John Fitch of Norwalk in ye County of Fairfield and Colony of Connecticut, knowing it is appointed for all men = once to die and being of disposing mind, thanks be to God therefor =

Calling to mind my mortality do make and ordain this my last will and =

Pond in ye common Field on the West side of Norwalk River or Harbour. =
And also the Rest of my Lands joining to my son Matthew's Homestead = Land, being Seventeen Acres or thereabouts together with the Privilege = of a way to the same as is mentioned to be served in the Devise to my = son Matthew.

Item. I give and devise to my sd sons as aforesaid all the Rest of my = estate. Item. I give and bequeath to my loving daughter Rebekah Richards
=
Seventy-five pounds of Present Currency of this Colony, and if the same shall be either better or poorer at the Time of Payment that an = Equivalent shall be made or allowed to make it what it now is.
=

Item. I give and bequeath to my loving daughter, Lydia Fitch, the sume = of three hundred and ninety five pounds in the present currency of this
=
Colony and if the same shall be either better or poorer in value at Time of Payment that an Equivalent or an allowance shall be made to make it = equal to what is now is and if my sd daughter shall marry and receive = any Portion before my Decease, ye same shall be accounted as part of and to be deducted out of the above sum given her.
=

Item. My will is that what my movable Estate beside what is given to my wife shall want of paying my two daughters their aforesaid Legacies. My three sons shall pay the same within twelve months after decease and in case they neglect or refuse to do ye same-- Then I order so much of my = lands given to each of my sons shall be sold to pay the wantage of sd =
=
=
=
Legacies and I do hereby empower and direct my Executors to sell ye same accordingly.

Finally I make, constitute and ordain my three sons, my Executors to =

Dear kk:

My father was born January 26, 1916 (in Niagara County, New York). I arrived in '43. How close you are in age depends on the subjective extent to which you reference the geologic clock of time. Otherwise it's a simple, but objective exercise in math. Still, one year to an 13 month old is a long time.

Wouldn't Matthew II be my 4th great grandfather? The logic being: Enoch II = 1st; Enoch I (born on the same day, month and year as Abraham Lincoln) = 2nd; Matthew III = 3rd; and Matthew II = 4th.

I would be happy to share with you the dates, places, etc., of my Fitch line for inclusion in your data base, but I'll need to do so with a follow-up.

Concerning the following of the line. What I do is try to find information about the person and life of my various ancestors. The Fitch ones at that. A lot of work has already been done by others. A cousin (Gary Fitch, on Lake Road near Olcott, NY, and President of the Wilson (NY) Historical Society) made something of a project of tracing the American roots of our grandfather Ray S. (b.1884). Then there's John T. Fitch, whose excellent work takes us to our earliest well documented ancestor, William, b. circa 1400.

In any event, is there something to the notion that all of us are separated by no more than six degrees?

I do conjecture that you and I are descended from not less than about 10% of the first settlers of Norwalk, Connecticut, to include Richard Olmsted et ux and Daniel Kellogge et ux. The gene pool was limited. If you haven't found it already, you likely will get a kick out of this page: findagrave.com/pictures/5017.html

Thanks for replying to my mail.

Unpublished manuscript (written CLEARLY ten (10) years before "JT's" "Puritan in the Wilderness") shows that Sara may have come to the colonies, with her four brothers. Seems logical, as someone had to care for their widowed mother, Anne (Reeve), who also came to America.

Fitch has...authoritatively treated one branch of the family of William Fytche of Wicken Bonhunt, Essex, England (d. 1466) by thoroughly examining traditional genealogical sources and a host of seldom, or never before seen, family artifacts. This iconographic exploration of the aristocratic family who remained in England (and whose known male descendants eventually became extinct) will be of interest to all those who have read John Fitch's outstanding books on American kinsmen of this same family." -- D. Brenton Simons, Editorial Director, Newbury Street Press

A monograph on the genealogy and heraldry of William Fytche of Little Canfield, Essex, second son of Thomas and Agnes Fytche of Lindsell. William accumulated large estates in Essex and passed them down through a distinguished sequence of descendants. The author has located and included portraits of six generations of this line, which ended with Elizabeth Fytche of Danbury Place. Included is an analysis of all the coats of arms displayed in the portraits. Published by Newbury Street Press, the special publications division of The New England Historic Genealogical Society. 72 pages, 38 illustrations, every-name index.

LOOKING FOR THE MOTHER OF NATHANIEL FITCH, born 1782 in Connecticut, died 1839 in Wyoming County (old Luzerne) PA.

One possibility would be Elizabeth Lockwood, who we believe married his father, John Fitch in 1766. Elizabeth was dead by 1784 as she was named as deceased in the will of her father, though no children were named. We assume that she was the mother of John Jr., Gideon, and Susannah as named in the will of Grandma Elizabeth (Beers) Fitch Ellis. Gideon was born in 1771 and the will was written in 1777. Since Nathaniel was not born until 10 or 11 years after Gideon and we do not know if there were any other children in that period of time we do not know when Elizabeth died.

From a signature in PA we find that the wife of John Fitch was Mary. So Mary must have been his second wife. We need to find who Mary was.

We find that John Fitch and Molly had a daughter called Betsey baptized in May of 1784 in Stamford, it is possible that Betsey could belong to our John Fitch. A Betsey Fitch was married in either Wyoming or Bradford Co., PA to Jeremiah Shaw, Jr. of Seshequin. The marriage or marriage license was listed in the Wyoming Co. records and married in 1803 or 06. The names of the parents are not listed. Another marriage was that of Sally Fitch to Uriah Smith and that listed John Fitch as the father. That was also either 1803 or 1806. Not sure which is which as I write this.

So our Nathaniel could be the child of either Elizabeth Lockwood or Mary.

I looked at the family that Nathaniel had and found that several names were given to the sons that could indicate an ancestor. Need to do some checking on the names of PERRY, SPENCER & MORGAN. GILES would also be a possibility but usually that has been given for a first name and do not know of a Giles family.

PERRY.....A name found in Fairfield Twp., Fairfield Co., CT

Nathaniel Perry
and
Mary Osborn had children:

Mary, born 1747.....a possibility for John Fitch's 2nd wife no note of her death and no note of a possible husband
Thankful Perry married Ebenezer Sturges who was a Tory
Nathaniel Perry Jr. married Eunice Sturges
Mehitable Perry married Nathan Beers, Jr.
Abigail married Reuben Sherwood

They appear to be a family who lived in the area that John Fitch lived in and had his property in. Jacobus does not give any more information about Mary. Some of the other children had died and their dates of death were given. Others were married and the spouses named. So apparently Mary did not die early and may have married at a place not recorded locally. Need to check more into the Perry family. Always possible John was her 2nd husband also. She could have been married before also.
There is another reason that Nathaniel and Sarah might have named a child Perry in 1818 and that was because of the hero Oliver Hazard Perry who fought a great battle on the Great Lakes in the war of 1812 so would have been a well-known hero when Perry was born. No way we can know if that could be the reason.

Daniel Smith and Ruth Fitch

Posted by John Noble <john_j_noble@compuserve.com> on Tue, 22 Aug 2000

Surname: Smith, Fitch, Cornell

Looking for information on Daniel Smith, born in Danbury, Fairfield County circa 1729 and his parents. He married Ruth Fitch (daughter of Theophilus Fitrch and Lydia Kellogg), born in Norwalk, Fairfield County, in 1730 in Norwalk in 1762. They removed to New Milford, where Smith was found to be "inimical" (ie he did not support the American Revolution) and his land was seized. Smith helped the British in their raid on Danbury in 1777. I have found reference on the Stamford page to a Joseph Smith who married Mary Cornell in Danbury on Dec 7, 1708. They had several children, including a Daniel born on April 24, 1725. Could this be the Daniel Smith, and his parents I am looking for?

Daniel Smith/Ruth Fitch

Posted by John Noble <john_j_noble@compuserve.com> on Thu, 08 Jun 2000

Surname: Smith, Fitch

Daniel Smith of Danbury and Ruth Fitch, b. 1 Apr 1739 in Norwalk were married on 22 May 1760. Ruth's parents were Theophilus Fitch and Lydia Kellogg. Who were Daniel Smith's parents and siblings? They moved to New Milford before the American Revolution and Daniel Smith acted as a guide for the British raid on Danbury in 1777 (which destroyed all existing records). Daniel Smith came to New Brunswick, Canada in 1783. Ruth followed later. Any information appreciated or suggestions where to look on the Internet. I live in Switzerland for the time being.

Damaris Weed

Posted by A.Fust <afust1@twcny.rr.com> on Thu, 12 Aug 1999

Surname: Weed, Fitch, Bouton

I am looking for the parents of Damaris Weed b.February 23, 1771 New Canan, Fairfield and married asa Fitch February 29, 1792 New canaan. I know her parents were Ebenzer Weed of Stamford and Hannah (?) also a Weed? What was her mother's maiden name and who were Ebenezer and Hannah's parents? . There was a Daniel Bouton mentioned as an Uncle to Hannah in Ebenezer's estate settlement papers I can't find any links to Boutons or Weeds. Possibly Hannah was a daughter of Josiah Weed and Abigail Bouton of Stamford. They had a daughter Hannah b.August 11, 1751. Abigail had a brother Daniel and her mother was a Betts. Weed,Hanford, and Betts are middle names of Damaris and Asa's children. Any links or suggestions would be greatly appreciated. Thankyou.

Sarah 13 F W IN
Levi 11 M W IN
James 69 M W NC
George R 18 M W NC
Who: Thomas Fitch (born c1809), son of James Fitch (born c1780 and living in this household) and Isabella Ray. James Fitch was the son of Thomas Fitch (born c1755) and Elizabeth Byrd.
Marriages: (Thomas Fitch) (2) Thomas Fitch to Mary Jones, 12 Nov 1843, Orange Co, IN. Thomas Fitch was obviously married once before to the mother of children Sarah and Levi.
Marriages: (James Fitch) (1) James Fitch to Isabelle Ray, 21 Sep 1804, Orange Co, NC.
Note: James Fitch and Thomas Fitch both mentioned in the will of Thomas Fitch (c1755). James as son James Fitch, Thomas as "grandson Thomas Fitch son of my son James Fitch." The will was dated 15 Dec 1832 and proven in Nov Court 1835.
Note: The George R. (Ray?) Fitch above believed to be the youngest son of James Fitch (c1780) and Isabella Ray.
==========

Now, i believe that Francis FITCH is the 3rd wife of Jeremiah 'Jerry' C ELLIOTT. i have that they married 28 JAN 1871 Lawrence Co IN and she bore 4 more children to add to his 17 children from previous marriages. i don't have names for the four children: would like to add them

Here is the information on my lineage. Perhaps the information could be useful here to those that are researching their families. Personally I am more than happy to offer this information at no charge because we are "FAMILY"! I can hear that song now! LOL If by chance some of the information is incorrect please let me know so that it may be corrected. Thanks and hugs to all! :)

The straightforward answer to your question is: I don't know who the Mary was that married Thomas Sherwood -- or even if her last name was Fitch. According to Roscoe Conkling Fitch's History of the Fitch Family, Vol. 1, p. 36, Mary Fitch, dau. of Thomas and Ann (Reve) Fitch, was b. Mar. 1629. I have no idea where he got his information, since he rarely mentioned sources.

Thomas and Anne were m. 1611. Their oldest son, Thomas, was b. 1612. So Mary was prob. b. 1613 or later. Her father d. 1632-3. If the order in which he mentioned his daus. in his will means anything, then there were two daus. b. after Mary. So, we can assume Mary was prob. b. no later than 1629. So that gives us a spread of 1613 to 1629. That means she would have been 28 to 45 years younger than Thomas Sherwood. I have seen 1640 mentioned as a marriage date. If Roscoe Fitch's 1629 date is correct, Mary would have been only 11.

There is also the problem of how she would have got to America. Her brother James came over in 1638 to study with Thomas Hooker. His mother and three brothers didn't come over until 1650. It seems unlikely her mother would have shipped Mary over alone or with 16 year old James.

It may be that this idea arose because Capt. Matthew Sherwood, son of Thomas Sherwood, married (as his second wife) Mary Fitch, b. England, 1643, d. 1730, daughter of Thomas and Anne (Stacie) Fitch of Norwalk. Thomas Fitch was James Fitch's oldest brother.

A Brief History of the Ancestors and Descendants of John Chase Lord Sherwood by Frances Sherwood Downing (in 1958) says that Thomas Sherwood came to the US on the Francis in 1634 with a wife Alice Seabrooke. Alice died while still in Massachusetts. He ended up in Fairfield CT. It also states that he married second Mary 8th child of Thomas and Anna Reeve Fitch who came to America in 1638-9...and had six children. He died in 1655 at the age of 69. And if she was born in 1629 and supposedly had 6 children by him...she must have been 18 to his 58 or so.

Donald Lines Jacobus, "Genealogies of Connecticut Families" in NEHG Register, Vol. 1, p. 425: See will of Mrs. Mary Sherwood-Banks.
What is evidence that Thomas Sherwood's 2nd wife, Mary, was a Fitch? Orcutt's 1886 "History of Stratford" says she was Mary with no surname. In 1889, Mrs. Elizabeth Hubbell Schenck in "History of Fairfield," p. 408, says same, no mention of surname. She m. (2) John Banks, And on p. 351, she says, "His second wife was Mary Fitch, wid. of Thomas Sherwood 1 of Fairfield." Appears to be origin of Mary as a Fitch. None of material about Sherwood mge, supplied by W. L. Sherwood of Newark, NJ, mentions her name. Only Mrs. Schenck in describing Banks mge. Jacobus thinks she was thinking of the Mary Fitch who m. her son, Matthew. No evidence Thomas's Mary was a Fitch.

OOPS !!! Have had this sitting in my IN BOX, since Tuesday am. Tuesday am found me at the beginnings of getting new teeth fitted, before 2 old ones were pulled. The dentist gave me some darn antibiotics which are playing havoc with my sensitive, tender stomach. Will call them today, to let them know that me no gonna take 'em anymore.

Re her NJ statehood thoughts, I will send her the following:
"New Jersey became a State in 18 Dec. 1787. One of the Original 15. Did you know that, originally, there were 15 Colonies ??? East and West Florida, who succeeded to Spain. Read that, the other day. You can ask me where, if you wish - - - I THINK it was in one of the NGS Volumes, maybe No. 85. It had an article "Loyalist Refugee Petitions in Fla." Me, too, found that an interesting tidbit of historical trivia. The ONLY reason I was able to recall where I shall that reference, was because - - - I WROTE the darn thing down.... .."

Be you interested in the Loyalist article ??? Can print it out from the CD. Also has a list of Loyalists who moved to Fla. Did I mention this, already ??? kk

Good morning to you.... .. Betty reminded me that I had given you (mostly) Rev. James "John's". Will go onward with those who have NO birthdate. Shall attempt to approximate date, for those who may have been alive in the 1800 timeframe that you are researching.

1. John Fitch, son of David and Maris (Porter) Fitch, of Ellsworth, Trumbull Co., Ohio. David was born 1781 so might make this John alive in 1800 ??? You had received a query from a Tom Fitch re: Haynes Fitch. Had forwarded it on to me, and I do HOPE I did respond. Have you heard from this TOM ??? His father was Thomas William Fitch. Thru Haynes and Anna Cooke, this TOM ended up going back to Thomas I.

2. John Fitch, m. 22 Sep 1789, to Sally Patterson. Son of Jonas and Mary Harrod. Jonas died in Bristol, Maine 11 Sep 1819. They go back to Deacon Zachary.

3. John Fitch, son of Cap't Zachariah and Rebecca (Davis) Fitch of Groton, Middlesex Co., Mass. This one had a John, Jr. Zach and Rebecca were m. 15 Oct. 1755. Yes, they go back to Deacon Zach, also.

4. John Fitch, son of Ebenezer, who was son of Ebenezer and Persis (Bush) Fitch, of Shrewsbury, NH - - back to Deacon Zachary.... ..

5. John Fitch, m. Mary Scott (yours) father of Joseph Fitch, who m. Permelia Miller. Do you have an approximate date for him, that I might input ???

That's all, for now, folks. kk

Thought for the day.... ..

"There are moments when everything goes well, but don't be frightened."
Jules Renard

You said that you are trying to ID all the John Fitches in Conn., Mass, Vermont and N.Y. And I believe you referred to the 1800 Census. You specifically asked for those "JOHN's" in Windham, Windham, Ellington, Tolland, Lisbon, New London. Salisbury, Litchfield, and Trumbull, Fairfield.... ..

Below you will find listed every JOHN I think might have been alive during the taking of the 1800 Census. Shall cc Betty, as she much more of an expert on JOHN's, that is for sure. She has sent me a great deal of her JOHN stuff. I do hope that I have them listed below for your perusal, and match up.

How could you have taken all of the OLD Fitch's out of your file ??? ??? ???
Let me know if anything else I can do.... ..

Zalmon Fitch Pioneer of Cleveland

Posted by: Pam Finnie (ID 6962) Date: September 13, 2006 at 16:12:41

Wanted to share this article found on the web. NOW DOES ANYONE HAVE A COPY OF ZALMON'S OBITUARY OR OTHER PERTINENT CERTIFICATES? And would also love those on William Haynes Fitch, his brother...my family's line. Thank you!

The Pioneer Families OF CLEVELAND, 1796 - 1840 by GERTRUDE VAN RENSSELAER WICKHAM, VOL. I & II. Under the Auspices of The Executive Committee of the Woman's Department of the Cleveland Centennial Commission-1896. EVANGELICAL PUBLISHING HOUSE1838.---

Although a late pioneer, coming to Cleveland at 51 years of age, and some time after his married son and daughter had settled in the city, Zalmon Fitch in the 32 years of his residence here was such a leading figure in financial circles that he merits considerable space in any history of early Cleveland. A pen-picture of him given by one who knew him well is of value in this connection.

"He had a fine face and figure, courteous to all, always richly though plainly dressed, and with the most scrupulous neatness, he was a conspicuous figure on the street, in the church, and in social life. He had large dark eyes and was thought to strongly resemble Daniel Webster. A man of high character and unblemished reputation, he was universally esteemed and respected, and by those with whom he was most intimate, greatly loved."

He was born in Norwalk, Conn., the son of Haynes and Ann Cook Fitch in the sixth generation from Thomas Fitch the American ancestor. His father served in Capt. Jabez Gregory's company, Connecticut militia, in the Revolutionary War.

In 1804, when only 19 years old, he came west and started a store in Canfield, Ohio, said to be the second one established on the Reserve. Four years later he married Betsey Mygatt, daughter of Comfort and Lucy Knapp Mygatt, pioneers of Canfield from Danbury, Conn. Mrs. Fitch was eighth in line from Joseph Mygatt of Hartford, Conn. Her grandfather in 1778 was Lieut. Col. of the 16th Regiment of Conn. Militia. In the war of 1812, Zalmon Fitch served under General Wadsworth in defending the Ohio frontier after Hull's surrender.

The first bank established on the Western Reserve was in Warren in 1813, and named the "Western Reserve Bank." Mr. Fitch was made its cashier, a position he held for 23 years, or until he became its president. In his hands was nearly the whole management and control of the funds of the canal then in process of construction. His decision was final and satisfactory.

A very interesting story is told of the manner in which Mr. Fitch sent money to eastern banks before the days of express companies. He would sometimes take as high as $50,000 in bills on eastern banks to Pittsburg, driving his own team, and exchanging them for Ohio money. He was generally accompanied by his wife's nephew, Comfort A. Adams, a lad of 17 to 19 years. The money was carried in a carpet sack under the buggy seat. The first stop was at Poland, 20 miles, for dinner, where the carpet bag and robes were given in charge of the landlord, Chester Bidwell. The next stop was at Darlington, and the baggage placed by Mr. Dunlap the landlord in a small closet adjoining the bar room, in charge of the night watchman (a big yellow dog). The next day at Economy, 20 miles, for dinner, the precious bag was given to the Economite brothers, in charge, and then 20 more miles brought Mr. Fitch to Pittsburg. The same amount of Ohio bills had then to be carried on the return journey, where stops were made at the same places with the usual precautions.

Mr. Zalmon Fitch lived in Warren in 1838, and in October of that year, removed to Cleveland where his two children, Grant Fitch and Mrs. Laura Fitch Williams, were then living. Soon after coming here, he undertook to straighten out the affairs of the Bank of Cleveland, which was embarrassed through the panic of 1837, and the utter collapse of Cleveland's real estate boom. Later he associated with George Williams (who had been partner of his son Grant Fitch) in the private banking and brokerage business under the firm name of George Williams and Co.

The children of Zalmon and Betsey Mygatt Fitch:

Lucy Fitch, b. in Canfield, 1809; m William Williams 1827; d. in Buffalo, 1829.

Grant Fitch, b. 1810; m. Mary C. Baldwin, 1837; died in Cleveland, 1840.

Laura Fitch, b. 1814; m. William Williams 1832; d. in Cleveland 1852.

Zalmon Fitch married 2nd Rebecca H. Salter of New Haven, Conn. She was born in Tiverton, England, and died in Cleveland, 1879, aged 89 years. There were no children of this marriage. Rebecca Salter Williams had been a music teacher ; and as her husband's grandchildren and great-grandchildren successively reached suitable age, she took delight in giving them their first lessons on the piano.

The Zalmon Fitch home for 20 years was on the south-east corner of Prospect ave. and East 9th street. Mr. Fitch then bought and removed to a house on the north side of Euclid ave., nearly opposite E. 14th st., where he died in 1860.

Trowbridge - Sherwood - Fitch ? Capt Mathew Sherwood m. Mary Fitch

Very little is known of Joseph as he died young having fathered only 3 children. A son, Mathew b.1708, died while still an infant. A daughter, Anne b. 13-Dec-1713, whom married Jacob Wakely and a son David, whom we descend from. What is known about Joseph is that he was a carpenter by trade, but farmed his own land. He married Anne Sherwood, the daughter of Capt. Mathew Sherwood in 1708 @ Failfield. He and his wife were members of the Stratfield (CT) Congregational Church. He died sometime in May of 1715 as a Probate inventory of his estate was taken on the 31st of May, 1715. Anne then married Caleb Fairchild in 1716 and moved to Hanover, Morris county, New Jersey where she and Caleb raised David & Anne.

David, born 30-Dec-1709 @ Stratfield, Connecticut married Lydia Holmes on 03-Jul-1735 in Bedford, New York. They settled in what is now known as Morristown, Morris county, in West New Jersey. He homesteaded the area known as Trowbridge Mountain, having derived it's name from the fact that David, several of his sons and his grandsons built their farms there. David was a farmer by trade and he and his wife were members of the Baptist church in Morristown.

There are so many land records, but you are actually lucky – some people didn't own land and that makes it very difficult to trace. I would think that you would at the least want the deeds that were involved with the estates.

I know that this is a lot of material. If you have any questions, please ask.

Dear Karen,

Vital Records

We have a bonus and a minus with these. The index did not refer us to the correct pages. I was able to find John Fitch, son of John, born September 29, 1677, in Norwalk. The index said the record was located on page 112 of volume 1 of the land records. The actual record was in volume 1 of the land records, but on page 177. I was not able to locate the records for Matthew Fitch. The bonus was I found a land record of Thomas Fitch giving his son, John Fitch, land.

Norwalk Land records – volume 1, page 177:

- John Fitch the sonne of Thomas Fitch Senior tooke to wiffe Rebeckah Lindall the daughter of deacon Lindall formerly of newe Haven and was married the third of desember one thousand sixe hundred Seaventie fowre.
- John Fitch the sonne of John Fitch was borne the twentie nine of September one thousand sixe hundred seaventie seaven.
- Rebeckah Fitch the daughter of John Fitch was borne the fifteenth day of January one thousand sixe hundred seaventie nine.

Norwalk Land records – volume 1, page 285-286:

- Be it known unto All persons whome it may concerne that I Thomas Fitch of Norwalk Senior In the County of Fairfield of the Collonie of Conetticutt in new England. Doe by these presents; for good consideration . . . give to my sonn John Fitch of the afforesayd Toune and County: . . . [this is followed by a description of the land being given to John Fitch on February 14, 1683 – 1st parcel = 7 acres more or less in planting field called the neck; 2nd parcel = 1 acre and 1 rood more or less lying in aforesaid planting field; 3rd parcel = 6 acres more or less in aforesaid planting field called by the name of pasture Lott; 4th parcel = 6 acres more or less adjoyning unto the same, at the end therof; the sayd parcell of land lying on the hithermost playne in the Meadow field of the other side of the River; and the 5th parcel = 2 acres more or less on the other side of the River.

11/20/01	9:15-9:55 (40 minutes)	Fitch	Find birth and marriage record	Norwalk deeds, volume 1
Results	Found John's marriage, and the birth of John Jr. and Rebeckah. Also a land record of Thomas giving land to son John.
Comments	This took longer than I expected. The index had the page numbers incorrect and I had to do extra searching to find what I did. I could not find the birth of Matthew or the marriage of Mathew to Lydia. I am sure that it is there somewhere, but it could take a long time to find and I wanted to move on. (Made 3 copies) took one digital of the copy of vital records
